Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

When we come to confession, a firm purpose of amendment is more than just a general wish that we not do something. There has to be resolve, intention and action to root out vices from our lives. It takes work on our part, not just kind of passive desire for reception of grace. If we are going to confession every time the doors are open with the same laundry list of sins, at some point we have to ask ourselves if we have not fallen into what moral theologians call recidivism. A fierce ethicist named Dominic Prümmer wrote in a classic text:

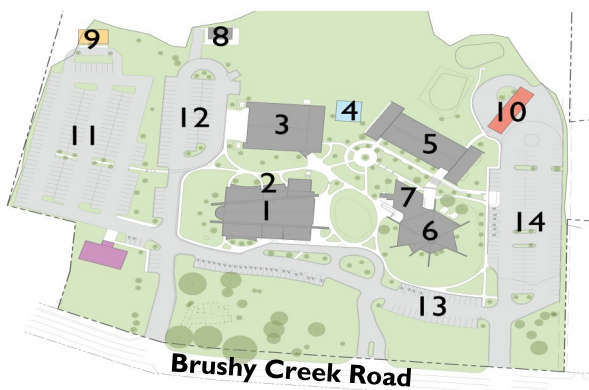

“The characteristic sign of a formal recidivist seems to be that after repeated confession (on three or four occasions) the penitent commits the same sin in similar circumstances of time and place, so that one may prudently infer the continuance of an evil will in the penitent. A formal recidivist differs from a person who has contracted a sinful habit, as noted already; however, earlier theologians often made no such distinction and therefore their remarks must be read with care. In normal circumstances the recidivist cannot be absolved unless he shows special signs of sincerity such as to destroy the presumption against hint of lack of suitable dispositions. I say — in normal circumstances, since in a case of necessity the sacrament may be administered even to one who is doubtfully disposed to receive it. The penitent’s frequent relapses into the same sin with no sign of amendment create a strong presumption that he lacks sincere attrition and firm purpose of amendment. For it is hardly possible that a man, genuinely sorry for his sins and firmly proposing to use the means necessary to avoid falling into sin, should then commit the same sins in exactly the same way. Consequently this presumption of lack of suitable dispositions must first be destroyed before absolution may be granted, and a simple avowal to this effect on the part of the penitent is insufficient. The penitent has already asserted his willingness on several occasions to make amends and yet no amendment is evident, so that his present declaration deserves little credence. Therefore, his assertion must be strengthened by special signs of contrition and firm purpose of amendment.

Special signs of contrition and purpose of amendment are, e.g. the voluntary avoidance of a proximate occasion of sin, the permanence of the penitent’s resolution for at least some time after his confession, spontaneous confession especially at an unusual time, a pious pilgrimage undertaken in order to make his confession, spiritual exercises, etc.”

Sometimes we need to be honest with ourselves that we really just like the sin we keep on doing, and have no intention of doing the actual work under grace required to change our lives. Confession is not a magic Etch-a-Sketch by which the counters are returned to zero. It is a loving dialogue with our Father in heaven, who invites us to a deep conversion of heart that will change everything about our supernatural life.

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

feast of st padre pio

23 September: Feast of Saint Padre Pio. This feast is in honor of Italian Franciscan priest St. Pio of Petrelcina, better known as “Padre Pio” and renowned for his suffering, humility and miracles. Padre Pio was born Francesco Forgione in 1887 as one of seven children. His growing up years were marked by daily Mass, family rosary, and acts of penance. He decided at a young age to dedicate his life to God. In 1903, he put on the Franciscan habit as a Capuchin Friar. Capuchin priests seek extreme poverty, strictness, and simplicity. He took the name Pio, a modern Italian form of “Pius,” in honor of Pope St. Pius V. He was ordained a priest in 1910. Padre Pio suffered through health problems and serious illness. He experienced religious ecstasy and attacks from the devil (friars would report strange noises from his cell). In 1918, Padre Pio first received the painful Stigmata – the five wounds of Christ’s passion. This made him the first stigmatized priest in Church history. During World War I, Padre Pio served in the military and offered his own personal suffering for an end to war. Once again, he received the Stigmata wounds. They would remain with him for 50 years. Countless doctors looked at his wounds with no explanation. His wounds bled painfully every day with no drop in blood pressure. Against his wishes, Padre Pio’s reputation for holiness and miracles began to attract crowds. Countless people flocked to his confessional and many more received his saintly counsel and spiritual guidance through correspondence. His life was marked by long hours of fervent prayer and patient suffering. Padre Pio died in 1968, and was declared a saint in 2002.

Feast of St Padre Pio

Celebrate the Liturgical Life of the Church

Ideas for celebrating this feast day at home:

- Today’s menu should include Italian foods in honor of this Italian born saint (cappuccino, pasta, risotto, pizza, etc). For today’s feast day treat, make easy “Stigmata rice krispie treats”: use a hand shaped cookie cutter (or your own hand as a guide!) to cut out rice krispie treats. Use a dab of red icing in the center of the hand treats to look like a Stigmata.
- St. Padre Pio loved to hear confessions: his feast day is a great reminder for us! Put it on your calendar and make a commitment to go to confession soon.
- Watch a video about Padre Pio on FORMED using your free parishioner and school parent account
- Family prayer time: St. Padre Pio said that “Prayer is the oxygen of the soul.” Before bedtime, kneel together as a family and take turns praying. Try to make this a part of your daily routine. Padre Pio’s own family was known for praying a family rosary – try to add this to your family life, too!
- Join in praying a virtual rosary with your parish family (7pm on Su, Mo, Tu, Thu, Fr). Details here. This is a beautiful way for your children to see prayer modeled by their parents and fellow parishioners.

new study for adults in their 20s, 30s and 40s

Adults in their 20s, 30s and 40s are invited to a 3-week study at the home of Chase & Erica Womack on Mondays at 7p beginning 21 September. Their address is 269 Delbourne Ln, Greer, SC 29651.

Attention
young adults
in their 20s,
30s and 40s

About the study: Each week, Catholics the world over flock to their churches to worship God in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Week in and week out we recite the prayers, stand, kneel, respond and receive communion. In all the times you've been to Mass, have you ever wondered, "why do we do it this way?" Have you ever been challenged by a non-Catholic or Protestant to show, "where is THAT in scripture"? Join us in a 3-part series as we look into the reason for the Mass, it's history, it's prominence in scripture, WHAT the parts of the mass are but also WHY Catholics have celebrated this way for 2,000 years.

About the study leader: Chase Womack has attended Prince of Peace for 5 years. He was raised Catholic but stopped practicing as a young adult. After a strong re-conversion, lead by a desire to unite his family into one faith, he has devoted himself to teaching and defending the Catholic faith to all who desire to learn more. Chase has been married to Erica for 8 years and has 3 daughters.
