Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

So the Hallmark version of Father's Day is in June, but Catholic cultures always take advantage of the Solemnity of St Joseph on 19 March to celebrate fatherhood. So this Saturday we will have a Solemn Mass of St Joseph in English at 5p followed by a procession over to the PAC, and a Party in Prince of Peace style for our fathers and our families. As we emerge from COVID, it is absolutely crucial that we come together as a parish family to get to know each other socially once again, and I can't think of a better way to do that than to celebrate the Last of the Patriarchs and the Foster Father of Our Lord.

Leo XIII in Quamquam pluries addressed an entire encyclical letter to the Church about St Joseph. There's a lot of wisdom here:

The special motives for which St. Joseph has been proclaimed Patron of the Church, and from which the Church looks for singular benefit from his patronage and protection, are that Joseph was the spouse of Mary and that he was reputed the Father of Jesus Christ. From these sources have sprung his dignity, his holiness, his glory. In truth, the dignity of the Mother of God is so lofty that naught created can rank above it. But as Joseph has been united to the Blessed Virgin by the ties of marriage, it may not be doubted that he approached nearer than any to the eminent dignity by which the Mother of God surpasses so nobly all created natures. For marriage is the most intimate of all unions which from its essence imparts a community of gifts between those that by it are joined together. Thus in giving Joseph the Blessed Virgin as spouse, God appointed him to be not only her life's companion, the witness of her maidenhood, the protector of her honour, but also, by virtue of the conjugal tie, a participator in her sublime dignity. And Joseph shines among all mankind by the most august dignity, since by divine will, he was the guardian of the Son of God and reputed as His father among men. Hence it came about that the Word of God was humbly subject to Joseph, that He obeyed him, and that He rendered to him all those offices that children are bound to render to their parents. From this two-fold dignity flowed the obligation which nature lays upon the head of families, so that Joseph became the guardian, the administrator, and the legal defender of the divine house whose chief he was. And during the whole course of his life he fulfilled those charges and those duties.

He set himself to protect with a mighty love and a daily solicitude his spouse and the Divine Infant; regularly by his work he earned what was necessary for the one and the other for nourishment and clothing; he guarded from death the Child threatened by a monarch's jealousy, and found for Him a refuge; in the miseries of the journey and in the bitternesses of exile he was ever the companion, the assistance, and the upholder of the Virgin and of Jesus. Now the divine house which Joseph ruled with the authority of a father, contained within its limits the scarce-born Church. From the same fact that the most holy Virgin is the mother of Jesus Christ is she the mother of all Christians whom she bore on Mount Calvary amid the supreme throes of the Redemption; Jesus Christ is, in a manner, the first-born of Christians, who by the adoption and Redemption are his brothers. And for such reasons the Blessed Patriarch looks upon the multitude of Christians who make up the Church as confided specially to his trust - this limitless family spread over the earth, over which, because he is the spouse of Mary and the Father of Jesus Christ he holds, as it were, a paternal authority. It is, then, natural and worthy that as the Blessed Joseph ministered to all the needs of the family at Nazareth and girt it about with his protection, he should now cover with the cloak of his heavenly patronage and defend the Church of Jesus Christ.

In Christ,

J. Christopher Smith

seven sisters apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a commitment of at least 7 women to pray for a specific priest and his intentions. One sister is assigned to each day of the week. She then commits to pray for the priest for one hour in front of the Blessed Sacrament every week, on their assigned day. Our priests are now covered in prayer every day. We are currently looking to cover our BISHOP in prayer as well. Being a Seven Sister is a yearly commitment, beginning at the Feast of the Sacred Heart, so we are always looking for people for both our priests and the Bishop. Please prayerfully consider joining this important ministry. If this is something that you are interested in or have more questions about, contact Katie Sandifer at twosandifers@gmail.com. You can also visit <https://sevensistersapostolate.org> for more information.

fasting on fridays

All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. On days of abstinence, meat should not be eaten at any meal. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics who have completed their 14th year.

The obligation to observe, as a whole or "substantially," the penitential days specified by the Church is a serious obligation. The Code of Canon Law states: "On these days (of Penance), the faithful are in a special manner to devote themselves to prayer, to engage in works of piety and charity, to deny themselves, by fulfilling their obligations more faithfully and especially by observing the fast and abstinence..."

lenten fridays at pop

This Lent please join the parish Knights of Columbus Council 9184 for Meatless Pizza Knights on Fridays, 18 March and 1 April, before Stations of the Cross. The evening will feature non-meat combination pizzas, hand tossed and fresh out of the oven, sold by the slice, or multiple slices at a discount.

Come build community with your fellow parishioners and enjoy some pizza, beverages, and dessert. Proceeds will go to support our Faith in Action Initiatives. Event will be held in the Parish Activity Center. Doors open at 5p.

Celebrating the Liturgical Life of the Church

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

19 March: Solemnity of Saint Joseph. The Church celebrates two feast days for Saint Joseph: 19 March for Joseph the Husband of Mary and 1 May for Joseph the Worker. The 19th of March has been the more commonly celebrated feast; it wasn't until 1955 that Pope Pius XII established the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker (1 May is also "May Day" – International Workers' Day). Saint Joseph is well known as the head of the Holy Family. He is silent in scripture, yet, spoken words are not needed for us to understand his integrity and godliness. Here is what Pope Benedict XVI says: "The silence of Saint Joseph is given a special emphasis. His silence is steeped in contemplation of the mystery of God in an attitude of total availability to divine desires. It is a silence thanks to which Joseph, in unison with Mary, watches over the Word of God, known through the Sacred Scriptures, continuously comparing it with the events of the life of Jesus; a silence woven of constant prayer, a prayer of blessing of the Lord, of the adoration of His holy will and of unreserved entrustment to his providence. It is no exaggeration to think that it was precisely from his "father" Joseph that Jesus learned... Let us allow ourselves to be "filled" with Saint Joseph's silence! In a world that is often too noisy, that encourages neither recollection nor listening to God's voice." Saint Joseph is the guardian and patron of the Universal Church, as well as of many causes including workers, fathers, and a happy death, due to the tradition that he died in Jesus and Mary's arms.

"Inspired by the Gospel, the Fathers of the Church from the earliest centuries stressed that just as St. Joseph took loving care of Mary and gladly dedicated himself to Jesus Christ's upbringing, he likewise watches over and protects Christ's Mystical Body, that is, the Church." – Pope St. John Paul II

Ideas for celebrating this feast:

- It is traditional to wear red for St. Joseph's Day. Set the table with red cloths or candles and decorate the tabletop with tools and a sprinkle of sawdust (tip: breadcrumbs look like sawdust!). Place white lilies in your home to remember St. Joseph's purity.
- Click here to see how to make a "St Joseph Altar" with all the traditional foods. Or, simply serve up sloppy Joe sandwiches as a fun way to remember Beloved Saint Joseph!
- Traditional St. Joseph's day foods include breads shaped in cross and staff form, figs, olives, dates, artichokes, fruits, salads, and sweets of all kinds especially donuts, cream puffs, biscotti and Italian cookies. For the main meal you could serve traditional fish and "St. Joseph's Sawdust": toasted bread crumbs over pasta, representing sawdust from St. Joseph's workshop. Here's a recipe.
- Children can do a craft building/making something out of wood (twigs, popsicle stick, etc) to remember Joseph's work as a carpenter.
- In Italy and Spain, Father's Day is celebrated annually on St. Joseph's Day. Whatever man in your life has guided you or deepened your faith (whether it's a biological father, adoptive father, foster father, grandfather, father-in-law or good priest): St. Joseph's Day is a perfect day to honor them! Send a card; deliver a dinner; or offer a Mass in their honor.
- Give your worries to Joseph so you can get some rest: It is said that St. Joseph, the "Terror of Demons," even frightens demons in his sleep, such is his power and strength! Ask St. Joseph to pray for you and take your worries away.
- Participate in the 33-day consecration to St. Joseph
- Pray the rosary with your family, saying the Litany of Saint Joseph at the end.
- Saint Joseph's life is a model of Christian virtue. Perhaps we honor him best when we imitate his virtues (visit this website for insight into all of Joseph's virtues).
- CELEBRATE THIS FEAST WITH YOUR POP FAMILY: On Saturday, 19 March after the 5pm Mass, come and join in the procession from church to the PAC. There will be dinner (salad, spaghetti, rolls), a photo booth, and other fun activities to celebrate St. Joseph and all fathers! Bring dessert!

st joseph celebration—sponsors needed

On Saturday, 19 March after the 5p Mass, come and join in the procession from the church to the PAC to celebrate St Joseph and all of our fathers. We will have dinner, a photo booth, and play “Kids say the Darndest Things” of course getting to know our dads better. Bring dessert to share!

We are looking for sponsors to help cover the cost of the food. We will list sponsors in the bulletin. If you can donate, please write “St Joseph Dinner” in the for section of the check and put attn Maria Rauch on the envelope. Questions? Call or email the parish office.

liturgy of the hours

Consider adding a new spiritual practice - praying The Liturgy of the Hours. These prayers are encouraged by Holy Mother Church and will help bring about a deeper prayer life which, in turn, will build a strong foundation for a life of holiness. Though called ‘Hours,’ this refers to the time of day, not how long it takes to pray; each prayer only takes about 15 minutes. Join your spiritual family at Our Lady's Altar for one or more Hour Prayers:

- Matins (Office of Readings) - Mondays and Thursdays, 7:40am
- Lauds (Morning Prayer) -- Mondays and Thursdays, 8:00am
- Vespers (Evening Prayer) -- Tuesdays and Fridays, 5:30pm

For more information and preparation, contact Lisa at 864-508-7123 or adoration@princeofpeacecatholic.org.

Happenings & Needs

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

40 days for life

You are invited to join other Christians throughout the Upstate to take part in our local 40 Days for Life effort from 2 March—10 April. 40 Days for Life, a non-denominational prayer campaign to end abortion, began in College Station, Texas. It has expanded not only nationally, but internationally since its inception in 2007. There are two campaigns a year, one beginning on Ash Wednesday for 40 days of Lent. The Fall campaign begins on the fourth Wednesday of September. These prayer campaigns are initiated and organized at the grassroots level in communities throughout the nation and abroad. Prayer, fasting and public vigil at the abortion facility are key components. The National Organization requires anyone participating in a campaign sign a promise to conduct themselves in a peaceful, respectful manner. Many believe the Holy Spirit is using this movement to end abortion and at the same time bring people of many faiths together. To find out more go to the website or Facebook page or contact Valerie at 864.297.8838.

- Our parish is responsible for praying outside of the local abortion facility on Mondays across the 40 days campaign
- Closing Celebration: 10 April at 3p at 1143 Grove Road
