Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Parishioners,

There is a fine balance in pastoral life between efficiency and trying to meet the needs of people. When I was a younger priest, I balked at the idea of making people call the parish office to set an appointment with me, because I never made an appointment to speak with my father, so why would I make my spiritual children do that with me? But I quickly found out that making people wait and then not get to see me because I had something that was scheduled didn't work, and I soon found that I was not living a balanced life by being always available for appointments.

For the past twelve years at Prince of Peace, we have done our utmost to accommodate people's wishes as far as scheduling funerals, baptisms and weddings. You may not be aware of it, but triangulating schedules between clergy, musicians, facilities, family members, cleaners, maintenance people, vendors, volunteers for receptions, cemeteries and the list goes on, is incredibly complex. For the most part, in the past we have been able to make this work with only the very rare conflict. The sheer volume of funerals, baptisms and weddings now has made what used to mean just a little extra coordination into a bit of a nightmare. Add to that the regularly scheduled liturgical services as well as other events in the church and it has become highly complex indeed. People often come because they want to do something in the church and go away sad when we have to tell them that the church is booked for months and months in advance. Even Mass intentions have become so popular, that we don't have enough Masses in the schedule to cover them. A priest also can't just multiply Masses ad infinitum. The discipline of the Church wisely limits him in this regard to one Mass a day, with bination tolerated, and trination is allowed in this diocese by a special permission of the Apostolic See. Father Tomlinson and I have both found that we are trinating for some reason or another on a regular basis, even during the week, and even on what are supposed to be days off. And that doesn't count requests for Mass and confessions off campus.

Please remember that, while a priest is encouraged to celebrate Mass every day, there is no expectation that a public Mass has to be celebrated in the church every day, much less twice a day. Now, at Prince of Peace, we have a particularly serious commitment to the sacred liturgy and the Holy Sacrament of the Altar, which is why we try to provide as many opportunities for our people to assist at Holy Mass as possible, and why the Adoration Chapel is the secret engine room of the parish. But multiplying things just to multiply them is not the mind of the Church. Mass is the most important thing we do every day, but it is not the only thing we do every day.

Also, even with two full time priests at the hospitals, the sheer volume of requests for anointing of the sick has increased significantly. While some of these anointings are of parishioners after Mass on the day before they go into surgery, that is not the case at all with the vast majority of them, which take place in hospitals, nursing homes, hospice facilities and private homes. We do our best to take care of those physically close to the parish, and then those who call Prince of Peace their spiritual home wherever they may be located, but we often get calls from people who are unassigned to a parish, or they get Prince of Peace first when calls to other parishes go unanswered. You might be surprised to hear this, but I am not at all bothered at getting calls in the middle of the night. The hard part is when they happen in the middle of the day, when Fr Tomlinson and I are caught between a schedule which is becoming less flexible because of already scheduled events at the parish.

Something has to give. There are more people, more demands, and more needs. But there are not more priests. And our priests have to focus their energies on what they alone can do, and program enough flexibility in their schedules to be able to attend to emergencies in a timely manner between them, as well what needs to happen in the parish.

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

Happenings & Needs

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

popcs teacher wishlist

You asked, "how can we help teachers in the parish school." In addition to your prayers, there are items across various classrooms that are needed for the benefit of our students. Check out the list here on Amazon and ship directly to the school!

parish mission in advent

Save the date for a parish mission on 3-6 December titled Repent and Believe! Each talk begins at 6.30p and lasts about 45-50 minutes. Confession will be available after while parishioners pray the Most Holy Rosary.

- Sunday: Recovering from the Spiritual Pandemic
- Monday: The Last Four Things
- Tuesday: Forgiveness: Where Justice & Mercy Meet

The Church offers a Plenary Indulgence to the faithful who attend each evening of a parish mission, there will be a special Apostolic Blessing on the last evening at the Mass to impart the Indulgence.

Father Joseph will, if able, bring first class relics of Blessed Solanus Casey and Saint Padre Pio for veneration by the faithful.

The mission will be led by Capuchin Franciscan Friar, Fr Joseph Tuscan, OFM Cap.

Fr. Joseph was born in Columbus, OH, in 1967 and was raised in Canton, OH. He earned his Bachelor's degree in 1989 from Borromeo College Seminary. In 1990, he professed his first vows as a Capuchin Franciscan friar. Making his Perpetual vows in 1993, he went on to earn his Master's degree in theology in 1995 and was ordained to the priesthood in 1997. Fr. Joseph's first assignment after ordination was in Papua New Guinea in the South Pacific where he served for four years. Returning to the US in 2001, he has served in various capacities as parochial vicar, pastor, military and hospital chaplain and has also served in Puerto Rico.

Fr. Joseph currently serves as the national director of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers and in full-time preaching ministry for the Capuchin Province of St. Augustine, offering retreats and reflection days for parishes, Religious and Priests.

magnifikid bulk order

Our parish is planning on putting a bulk order in for multiple subscriptions to Magnificat MagnifiKid! The cost for a yearly subscription is dramatically reduced when it is bulk ordered (normally $34.90 for a yearly individual subscription). Individual subscriptions will be $18.30-$15.30 if ordered through our parish (cost dependent upon number of families participating). If you would like to add your name to the list of subscriptions, please contact Maria Barontini at maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org. Maria will coordinate distribution of the subscriptions every month, through the school, RE program, or privately. Maria needs a final count no later than 31 October 2022. Payment will be due no later than 16 December 2022 (final price will be emailed directly to families who sign up). You can see a sample by going to <https://us.magnificat.net/home/magnifikid>.

advent market and craft fair

This year is the first annual Advent Market, held concurrently with our long-successful Craft Fair on Saturday, 5 November. The day begins with 8a Mass and a 9a Blessing to open the festivities. There will be outdoor games, Advent organ music, Gregorian Chant demonstrations, food, church tours, Advent caroling, organized games, and more to set apart joyful time of festivity ahead of our spiritually rich Advent offerings this year. The day closes with 5p Anticipated Mass. We are looking forward to preparing for the Season of Expectant Joy with you!

Become a vendor at the Advent Market (registration open)! *craft fair is sold out

- 8x10 spaces are $50.00. There are a limited number of tables & tents available on campus, so vendors are encouraged to bring their own if possible, but parish tables and/or tents can be provided for an additional fee.
