Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Parishioners,

From Joseph Shaw of the Latin Mass Society UK:

Until the reform of the calendar in 1969, Latin Rite Catholics observed a period of preparation for Lent: the three Sundays of Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima. The names are derived from Latin numbers: Lent is quadragesima, “forty,” septuagesima “seventy,” sexagesima “sixty,” and quinquagesima “fifty.” It is a (very rough) countdown to Easter. As in Lent, during this period, the liturgical color is violet, and the readings and prayers refer to our need for conversion and penance. This season is actually older than Ash Wednesday; it is discussed in the writings of Pope St. Gregory the Great, who died in the year 604.

It is often said that a period of preparation for Lent doesn’t make sense, because Lent is itself a period of preparation for Easter. This argument is not as strong as it may seem. The final period of intense study or training before an examination or athletic competition is, of course, a preparation for that exam or competition, but it does not follow that it should not itself be preceded by some preparation.

But in that case, it might be said, where do you draw the line? Are we to prepare to prepare to prepare? There is, however, no need to draw a line at all. If you are serious about your academic progress, or your athletic career, you never give up your preparations completely, and certainly not for a prolonged period of time. As Catholics, our entire life is a preparation for death, and it should always have a penitential aspect, however much the degree of penance may fluctuate between specifically penitential seasons and festive ones.

Lent, in particular, is the Church’s major penitential season, and almost her only one. The “Lent” of Michaelmas, the penitential period before the feast of St. Michael the Archangel (September 29), during which St. Francis received the stigmata, is no longer observed; the four penitential Ember Weeks, which once sanctified the four seasons, tend to be ignored; the penitential character of the eve of great feasts has long been forgotten; Advent, the penitential season before Christmas, is too often a period of party-going and indulgence. Lent is pretty well the only annual, sustained attempt at penance Catholics are likely to encounter. Even this can be besieged by the secular world’s attempts to turn it into a chocolate-eating season. (I buy most of the family’s chocolate Easter eggs at a vastly reduced price immediately after Easter Sunday. The shops don’t seem to realize that the celebration of Easter continues until Pentecost, or even Trinity Sunday.)

For this reason, some preparation for Lent is even more important today than it has been in the past. In order to get the most out of Lent, one must think seriously about what practices to adopt, and a bit of acclimatization to these practices may well be useful. In the Eastern churches, the two Sundays before Lent are called Meatfare Sunday and Cheesefare Sunday, as they say goodbye to successive kinds of food until Easter.

The usefulness of a time of preparation for the rigors of Lent was affirmed by Pope Paul VI when the subject of Septuagesima came up during the reform of the liturgy after the Second Vatican Council. The architect of the reform, Archbishop Annibale Bugnini, himself recorded the pope’s explanation:

On one occasion Pope Paul VI compared the complex made up of Septuagesima, Lent, Holy Week and Easter Triduum, to the bells calling people to Sunday Mass. The ringing of them an hour, a half-hour, fifteen and five minutes before the time of Mass has a psychological effect and prepares the faithful materially and spiritually for the celebration of the liturgy.

The time Mass is actually beginning is not the time for us to start thinking about walking to church; likewise, Ash Wednesday is not the moment to be thinking about what to do in Lent. The three Sundays of Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima are indeed like the church bells reminding us of the imminence of Mass: time to call the children, time to get your coat on, time to leave the house.

south carolina abortion facts

In South Carolina, abortion is presently legal up to 24 weeks post-conception. With the recent ruling by the state Supreme Court striking down a Fetal Heartbeat Law, South Carolina serves as a safe haven for abortionists. There are two avenues to solve this crisis:

- Gov. Henry McMaster has pledged his commitment to fighting this injustice in court. He has petitioned to re-appeal at the S.C. Supreme Court.
- The state General Assembly has re-filed its Human Life Protection Act, which significantly limits abortion post-conception and protects the lives of mothers.

The South Carolina Catholic Conference, a public policy voice for Catholics, supports these causes and is actively working this legislative session to pass the Human Life Protection Act. To stay updated on advocacy efforts of the SCCC, visit sccatholicconference.org or email advocacy@charlestdiocese.org.

40 days for life campaign

40 Days for Life is a national, and international, campaign of prayer and fasting, of public vigil at abortion facilities, and of community outreach for the purpose of ending abortion. You are invited to join Christians throughout the Upstate in our spring campaign, 22 February—2 April. The need for prayer now is greater than ever. With the failure to approve prolife laws in both the S.C. legislature and the S.C. Supreme Court, the number of abortions performed at the Greenville Women's Clinic has greatly increased. Out-of-state traffic into the Greenville Women's Clinic is at record levels.

Be the ONE to make this a priority in your life and join us. Please visit: www.40daysforlife.com/greenville, or contact Judy Masterson 864.506.0964.

- Kickoff Rally: Tuesday, 21 February from 6.30-7.30p in the parking lot of Piedmont Women's Center, 1143 Grove Rd. Speaker will be Lisa Van Riper, President of South Carolina Citizens for Life. Parking is at Grove Road Baptist Church, just south of PWC on Grove Road.
- Sidewalk Counseling Training: Online/virtual training and in-person training are both offered. Contact Judy Masterson at 864.506.0964, or info@sidewalkadvocatesgreenville.org.

vacation bible school (vbs)

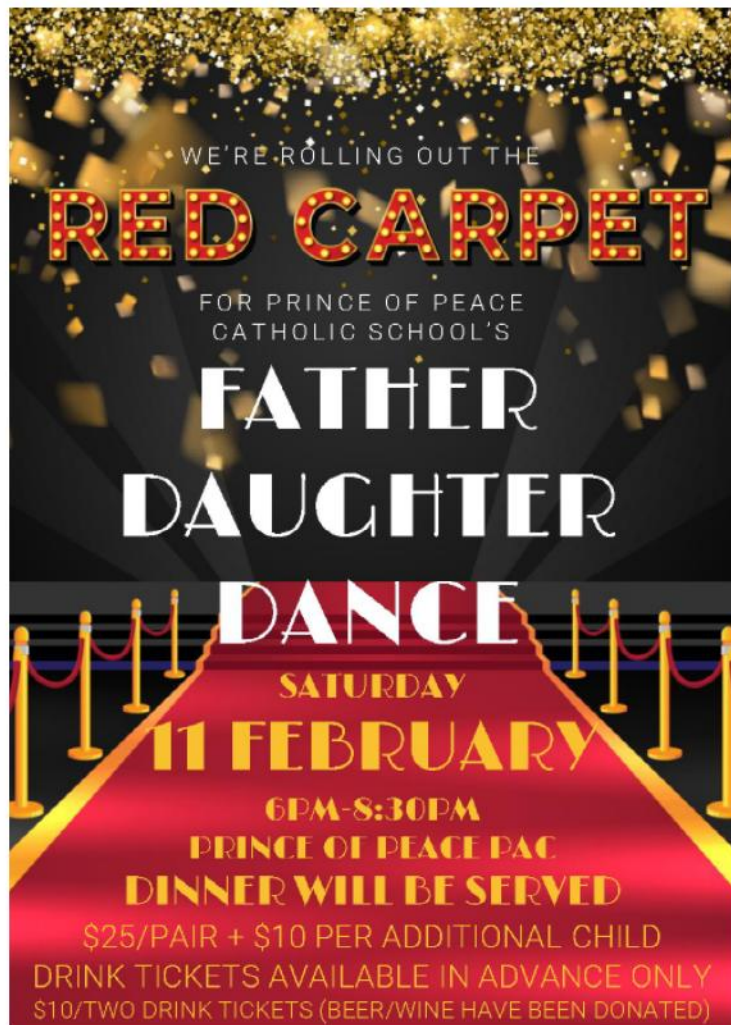

Prince of Peace VBS 2023 will be 16-21 July 2023. We are currently on the waitlist for Totus Tuus, so please continue to pray that the Diocese of Charlotte will be able to staff three missionary teams. We have ONLY 90 slots in our day elementary program. Sign ups begin on 5 February (and our day program is usually full by the beginning of March so make sure you sign up EARLY).

Please mark your calendars for our VBS potluck on 19 July. All parishioners are welcome to enjoy an evening of fellowship, even if you do not have children participating in the program.

To make the best plans for VBS we are in need of the following:

1. VOLUNTEERS to help 16-21 July. We would like to have a majority of our adult volunteers lined up prior to 29 January 2023. As an incentive to adults who volunteer: if you volunteer NOW your child(ren) get the first available spots for VBS and a discounted rate on the VBS fee. We are in greatest need for an adult volunteer to coordinate our VBS kitchen AND volunteers in our 1st-2nd grade.
2. Tentative host families to house either the entire missionary team or just the male or females of the team. Please reach out to Maria Barontini for further information.
3. Tentative dinner host families for the missionary team on Sunday evening, Monday evening, Tuesday evening, and Friday evening. You can host dinner in your home, at a restaurant, or with delivery for the four member team. Another option is getting together with friends and donating a few gift cards together for a restaurant and we will take care of the rest. Please contact Maria Barontini to volunteer.
4. We are also looking for pizza sponsors and team lunch sponsors. Please reach out to Maria Barontini for further information.

Happenings & Needs

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

In honor of our late, beloved Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, Prince of Peace will be hosting a series of 12 talks this year on a selection of his published works. Each talk will be at 6.30p in Croghan Hall with light refreshments. This series will be an excellent chance to dive into the rich contributions of Benedict's spiritual and theological insight, and our first lecture sets the stage for Benedict's pastoral gift of sharing divine truth in the lived experience of God's faithful people. Cut out this 2023 calendar for your planning!
