Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In 1910, Pope St Pius X required clergy and theologians to take an Oath against what he called “the synthesis of all the heresies”: modernism. Have you ever read it?

I . . . firmly embrace and accept each and every definition that has been set forth and declared by the unerring teaching authority of the Church, especially those principal truths which are directly opposed to the errors of this day. And first of all, I profess that God, the origin and end of all things, can be known with certainty by the natural light of reason from the created world (see Rom. 1:19), that is, from the visible works of creation, as a cause from its effects, and that, therefore, his existence can also be demonstrated: Secondly, I accept and acknowledge the external proofs of revelation, that is, divine acts and especially miracles and prophecies as the surest signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion and I hold that these same proofs are well adapted to the understanding of all eras and all men, even of this time. Thirdly, I believe with equally firm faith that the Church, the guardian and teacher of the revealed word, was personally instituted by the real and historical Christ when he lived among us, and that the Church was built upon Peter, the prince of the apostolic hierarchy, and his successors for the duration of time. Fourthly, I sincerely hold that the doctrine of faith was handed down to us from the apostles through the orthodox Fathers in exactly the same meaning and always in the same purport. Therefore, I entirely reject the heretical misrepresentation that dogmas evolve and change from one meaning to another different from the one which the Church held previously. I also condemn every error according to which, in place of the divine deposit which has been given to the spouse of Christ to be carefully guarded by her, there is put a philosophical figment or product of a human conscience that has gradually been developed by human effort and will continue to develop indefinitely. Fifthly, I hold with certainty and sincerely confess that faith is not a blind sentiment of religion welling up from the depths of the subconscious under the impulse of the heart and the motion of a will trained to morality; but faith is a genuine assent of the intellect to truth received by hearing from an external source. By this assent, because of the authority of the supremely truthful God, we believe to be true that which has been revealed and attested to by a personal God, our creator and lord.

Furthermore, with due reverence, I submit and adhere with my whole heart to the condemnations, declarations, and all the prescripts contained in the encyclical Pascendi and in the decree Lamentabili, especially those concerning what is known as the history of dogmas. I also reject the error of those who say that the faith held by the Church can contradict history, and that Catholic dogmas, in the sense in which they are now understood, are irreconcilable with a more realistic view of the origins of the Christian religion. I also condemn and reject the opinion of those who say that a well-educated Christian assumes a dual personality-that of a believer and at the same time of a historian, as if it were permissible for a historian to hold things that contradict the faith of the believer, or to establish premises which, provided there be no direct denial of dogmas, would lead to the conclusion that dogmas are either false or doubtful. Likewise, I reject that method of judging and interpreting Sacred Scripture which, departing from the tradition of the Church, the analogy of faith, and the norms of the Apostolic See, embraces the misrepresentations of the rationalists and with no prudence or restraint adopts textual criticism as the one and supreme norm. Furthermore, I reject the opinion of those who hold that a professor lecturing or writing on a historico-theological subject should first put aside any preconceived opinion about the supernatural origin of Catholic tradition or about the divine promise of help to preserve all revealed truth forever; and that they should then interpret the writings of each of the Fathers solely by scientific principles, excluding all sacred authority, and with the same liberty of judgment that is common in the investigation of all ordinary historical documents.

Finally, I declare that I am completely opposed to the error of the modernists who hold that there is nothing divine in sacred tradition; or what is far worse, say that there is, but in a pantheistic sense, with the result that there would remain nothing but this plain simple fact-one to be put on a par with the ordinary facts of history-the fact, namely, that a group of men by their own labor, skill, and talent have continued through subsequent ages a school begun by Christ and his apostles. I firmly hold, then, and shall hold to my dying breath the belief of the Fathers in the charism of truth, which certainly is, was, and always will be in the succession of the episcopacy from the apostles. The purpose of this is, then, not that dogma may be tailored according to what seems better and more suited to the culture of each age; rather, that the absolute and immutable truth preached by the apostles from the beginning may never be believed to be different, may never be understood in any other way.

In Christ,

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

men's get together

A get-together for the men of the parish is slated for 4 November at 6p behind McGivney Hall at the fire pit. Brotherhood is what most men are missing in their daily lives because they have trouble maintaining any real friendships outside of the social circle they entered into when they married, or that of their work colleagues. But as men of the same Parish, there are still a lot of men who don't even know each other's names, which is something we're looking to change.

- Age group: 18-108
- The agenda: Just hanging out with other men of the parish
- The entertainment: Conversation, cigars, fire, and meat on the grill.

Call or text John Olson at 864.354.5680 or text Jeff Putnam at 864.606.8371.

box of joy project

This Fall we are joining together with Lee Road United Methodist Church for our annual Box of Joy project, a Christmas gift ministry organized by local Catholic groups nationwide. By packing Boxes of Joy with toys and other gifts, our students will bless children suffering from extreme poverty by sharing the joy of Christmas and planting seeds of hope through the Gospel. We encourage every student and every family member to pack a Box of Joy!

This year, we have set a goal to bless at least 150 impoverished children!

- To reserve a box please email Maria Barontini or stop by her office in the Parish House to pick up a box AND a brochure.

Your family will choose the gender and age range of the child you want to bless. Please consult the list of recommended items and banned items before packing your box. Each box is individually checked both at Prince of Peace and the packing facility the boxes are eventually sent to.

Remember — a $9 donation is required and must be provided for each Box of Joy. Families may submit one donation in a consolidated amount if they are sending multiple Box of Joy gifts.

Ways to Give:

1. Online Giving:  This is the preferred way to give!  online at boxofjoy.org/donate — making one $9 gift for each box they are sending. This provides financial blessings to our ministry partners and covers international shipping costs. If you give online— please put your receipt under the rubber band on your box when you turn it in to Maria Barontini.
2. Deliver Donation Brochure/Envelope to Maria Barontini: (NO CASH ACCEPTED) Checks made payable to: Cross Catholic Outreach. You can put your donation brochure on TOP of your Box of Joy. DO NOT PLACE DONATIONS INSIDE THE GIFT BOX.

Collection Dates: 22 October – 5 November.

Please do not turn in boxes before 22 October. Boxes can be given to Maria Barontini or placed outside her office in the Parish House starting 22 October. There will be signs posted for a “BOY” and “GIRL” box drop off location outside Maria Barontini’s office. Please make sure you mark your box clearly what gender and age (recommended: use a sharpie on the box lid).

For more info, contact the Project Leader, Maria Barontini by email or visit the Box of Joy website!

sacramental prep and religious education alert

We are seeing lots of children in our parish who are not participating in our parish school OR Religious Education program. If you chose to homeschool your child(ren) and are teaching religion at home, please fill out a Homeschool RE Registration Form and turn it into Maria Barontini. This serves as a record for sacramental preparation and is needed YEARLY for children 7 years of age until they receive Confirmation. The homeschool RE Registration Form outlines the requirements for each sacrament for our homeschooling families.

- ALL First Holy Communion YEAR 2 and Confirmation YEAR 2 registration forms must be turned in prior to the yearly December deadline for a child to participate in a Spring sacrament (we must have two years of records).

Please contact Maria Barontini to receive the form via email at maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org

legion of mary invitation

Did you know our Blessed Mother has an army? It is called the Legion of Mary. It was founded in Ireland in 1921. It is the largest lay apostolic organization in the Catholic Church with over 3 million members worldwide. Members do active and auxiliary works. Active members visit the sick and homebound, do prison ministry, attend parish funerals, and support seminarians and postulants. Auxiliary members offer prayers to compliment the active works—this consists of a daily rosary. The Legion of Mary meets Monday in Lourdes Hall at 6.30p. Learn more by calling Lydia Augustine at 423.999.5950.
