Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As Catholics, we believe in a culture of life that flows from a civilization of love. But the tragedy of the culture of death casts its shadow even amidst the Church. There are many families in our pews today whose lives have been marked in some way by abortion. Grandparents who never held their grandchild; fathers who never knew they were dads until it was too late; mothers who were coerced by their own mothers to abort their child because it would supposedly destroy their life; health care workers who have had to care for a woman after a morning after pill gone terribly wrong. The landscape of the fight against abortion has changed significantly just in the past few years.

What has not changed is that there are many people even in our own faith community whose lives have been affected by the loss of abortion who need healing. But where do they go?

I would like for all of you who call Prince of Peace a spiritual home to go to www.supportafterabortion.com. There is a lot there in terms of research about what is happening in this realm now, as well as resources that anyone can go to for what can be constructive and helpful in this regard. If the Church is truly to be a place of healing, we need to be able to direct those who have been affected by abortion to resources that can assist in that, not just spiritual, but also mental health resources.

In Christ,

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

men's get together

A get-together for the men of the parish is slated for 4 November at 6p behind McGivney Hall at the fire pit. Brotherhood is what most men are missing in their daily lives because they have trouble maintaining any real friendships outside of the social circle they entered into when they married, or that of their work colleagues. But as men of the same Parish, there are still a lot of men who don't even know each other's names, which is something we're looking to change.

- Age group: 18-108yo
- The agenda: Just hanging out with other men of the parish
- The entertainment: Conversation, cigars, fire, and meat on the grill.

Call or text John Olson at 864.354.5680 or text Jeff Putnam at 864.606.8371.

sacramental prep and religious education alert

We are seeing lots of children in our parish who are not participating in our parish school OR Religious Education program. If you chose to homeschool your child(ren) and are teaching religion at home, please fill out a Homeschool RE Registration Form and turn it into Maria Barontini. This serves as a record for sacramental preparation and is needed YEARLY for children 7 years of age until they receive Confirmation. The homeschool RE Registration Form outlines the requirements for each sacrament for our homeschooling families.

- ALL First Holy Communion YEAR 2 and Confirmation YEAR 2 registration forms must be turned in prior to the yearly December deadline for a child to participate in a Spring sacrament (we must have two years of records).

Please contact Maria Barontini to receive the form via email at maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org
