Trish Hamel's Camino de Santiago Pilgrimage

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Ultreia et Suseia! Let's Go Further – Let's Go Higher!

There is an ancient pilgrimage across Europe with multiple paths that lead the faithful across France, Portugal, Italy, and Spain. The Pilgrimage is known as the "Camino de Santiago", and its many routes converge on the magnificent Cathedral in Santiago de Compostela, Spain, where the remains of St. James the Apostle are buried. In recent years, the pilgrimage has gained popularity among the faithful and others, who make the trek for countless reasons. For myself, the Camino de Santiago called to me first in a whisper five years ago, and gradually became louder and more persistent. I knew it was time to go and that the time was now, in 2024, before I reach my next major milestone birthday. A group of four joined me on the journey.

Our modest band of pilgrims decided to walk a portion of the "Caminho Portugues", the Portuguese Camino Central route. The route stretches from Lisbon to Santiago - 643 km - and takes 30 days to walk, a time commitment that no one in our group was able to make. The decision was to start from Valenca, Portugal and walk to Santiago from there – a distance of (merely) 124 km. On June 5, our small group gathered in Valenca, Portugal, a border town that is the site of a medieval (12th century) fort, where we spent the night before our first day on the Camino in an apartment within the walls of the ancient fort. It is common for this journey to be divided into six segments from Valenca, and we followed the example of thousands who have traveled this road before us and made the journey in six days. On June 11, we completed the Camino and arrived at the Cathedral in Santiago, tears streaming down our faces and pure joy in our hearts. Our total distance walked was 124 km.

While the mechanics of the journey are a necessary part of telling of the experience, they are the least important part. What those facts cannot convey is the meaning of this journey and the importance of what we discovered about God, ourselves, and each other. For my part, I reached out to friends and acquaintances alike for prayer requests and intentions which I recorded on pages in a journal as I received them. Each step of the road, I carried those intentions with me. There is a tradition on the Camino that a Pilgrim picks up a rock to carry with them on their journey; a rock that represents emotional weight or burdens within a Pilgrim's own life, or those of the individuals for whom they are praying. As I passed mile (km) markers along the way, I would place one rock upon the marker, and pick up another, and each one represented an individual in my prayer journal. Through the most challenging times, like the day when the temperature was 89 sunny degrees, the walk was 20 km (12 miles) with an altitude gain of 240 meters, it felt that I was sharing the burden of another individual's suffering, yet I have never felt such joy.

It is said that the first step in a pilgrimage is the one from your front door. When you take that step, I wish you Bom Caminho and a fruitful journey!

- Trish is married to Ron Hamel and they have 4 sons, 2 daughters and 15 grandchildren. The Hamels have been parishioners since 2015 and have served as active school parents in the PTO. Trish is currently serving on the board of the Columbiettes.

spiritual adoption of a pregnancy

The Respect Life Ministry asks members of the parish to spiritually adopt newly pregnant women so that they will have the courage to choose life and carry their baby to term. To spiritually adopt is a commitment to pray for the mothers until 25 December. Prayer options include a "Hail Mary" daily or a rosary daily either individually or as a family. Contact Pam Harrison at 864.233.6200 to enroll.

- Gestation Week 14: Thanks to brain impulses, your baby's facial muscles are getting a workout. Those tiny features can squint, frown and grimace. Your baby is also making sucking and chewing movements. Soft baby hair is coming: Hair follicles have started to form deep in your baby's skin. After 20 weeks, fine downy hair will sprout from these follicles on your baby's eyebrows, upper lip, and chin. Though you can't feel those tiny punches and kicks yew, your baby is quite active and has flexible hands and feet. Psalm 139:14 - I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made

The Seminarian Fund answers the call for the increased financial needs while providing a means for parishioners to be a part of the men's journey to priesthood. Please consider donating at charlestondiocese.org/seminarian-fund.

spiritual communion

For all those not able to receive our LORD in the Eucharist:

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

parish picnic

Save the date for a celebratory picnic of the Blessed Mother on Sunday, 8 September! This will also be an early celebration of the Anniversary of our Church Dedication on 21 September 2003 within the 50th anniversary. And, an invitation to all parish school alumni to return.

- There will be a planning meeting on Tuesday, 25 June at 6p.
  - At least one person from each ministry must attend. Every ministry is expected to help with this Church event.
  - If you do not belong to a ministry and wish to help out, please attend!

assumption—holy day of obligation

The feast of the Assumption is Thursday, 15 August. It commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven, before her body could begin to decay—a foretaste of our own bodily resurrection at the end of time. Because it signifies the Blessed Virgin’s passing into eternal life, it is the most important of all Marian feasts.

It is a Holy Day of Obligation.

Mass times are as follows:

- 7a
- 8.30a
- 12p Latin
- 7p

deacons preaching series—apostles’ creed

Our Deacons will preach a series on the Apostle’s Creed on weekends from 9 June to 18 August. Parishioners may reference Ludwig Ott’s Fundamentals of Catholic Dogma and the Catechism of the Catholic Church to prepare.
