Celebrating Our Lady of Mount Carmel on 16 July

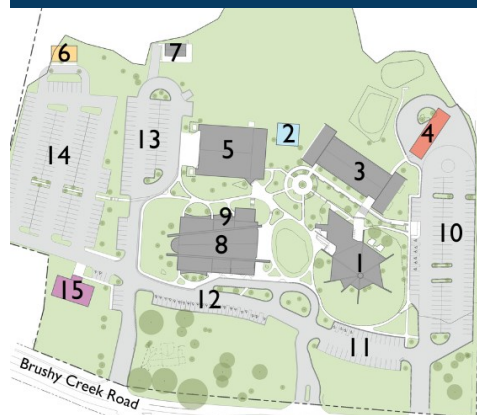

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

This liturgical feast was likely first celebrated in England in the 14th century to give thanksgiving to Mary, the patroness of the Carmelite Order. The Order was founded at the site thought to have been the location of Elijah's cave, 1,700 feet above sea level on Mount Carmel. (The mountain overlooking the Mediterranean Sea on which the prophet Elijah famously challenged the priests of Baal and won the people over to the true God.) According to Carmelite tradition, hermits lived at the site from the time of Elijah until the Carmelites. They think that from the time when Elijah and Elisha dwelt on Mount Carmel, priests and prophets, Jewish and Christian, lived holy lives at the adjacent fountain of Elisha. A Carmelite monastery was founded at the site shortly after the Order itself was created, and was dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title "Star of the Sea" ("stella maris" in Latin). The Carmelite Order has grown to be one of the major Catholic religious orders worldwide, although the physical monastery at Carmel has had a difficult history. During the Crusades, the monastery often changed hands (it was converted into an Islamic mosque, a hospital, and then in 1821 was destroyed). A new monastery was constructed on Mount Carmel over a cave. The cave, now the crypt of the church, is called "Elijah's grotto" by the Carmelite friars who have custody of the monastery. One of the oldest scapulars is also associated with Mount Carmel and the Carmelites. The Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, according to Carmelite tradition, was presented by Our Lady to St. Simon Stock (the Carmelite Father General) on July 16, 1251. Our Lady gave Saint Simon the following promise, saying: "Receive, My beloved son, this habit of thy order: this shall be to thee and to all Carmelites a privilege, that whosoever dies clothed in this shall never suffer eternal fire... It shall be a sign of salvation, a protection in danger, and a pledge of peace." The Carmelites refer to her by the title "Our Lady of Mount Carmel." The spread of the Carmelites in Europe is also largely attributed to the work of St. Simon Stock. The Carmelite Order was formally approved in 1274 at the Council of Lyon. The Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel entered the Church calendar in the 18th century. However, since the 15th century, devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel has centered on the Brown Scapular, a sacramental associated with promises of Mary's special aid for the salvation of the devoted wearer. {Note: wearing the Scapular demonstrates a commitment to follow Jesus, like Mary, the perfect model disciple of Christ. It is an expression of the belief that the bearers of the scapular will reach heaven, aided by Mary's intercession. The Carmelites insist that it is not a magical charm, an automatic guarantee of salvation, or an excuse for not living the Christian life. It is instead a sacramental approved by the Church for centuries which demonstrates a commitment to follow Jesus, like Mary, and to live a life of prayer and faithfulness to God.}

Ideas for celebrating this feast at home:

- Feast day treats should be "carmel" themed: cookie bars with caramel icing; Oatmeal 'Carmelite' Bars; Brown scapular cake; candy scapular sundaes; "brown scapular" brownies; caramel dip with fruit; caramel apples; or really, just about anything drizzled in caramel syrup – like a big scoop of ice cream!
- Learn more about the Brown Scapular. Today's feast is a perfect time to start wearing one, if you don't already. Purchase one, or for a feast day activity, make your own! Ask a priest to enroll you in the brown scapular society (in order to receive all the blessings associated with the Scapular, it is necessary to be formally enrolled. The enrollment is made once by a priest or authorized person).

spiritual adoption of a pregnancy

The Respect Life Ministry asks members of the parish to spiritually adopt newly pregnant women so that they will have the courage to choose life and carry their baby to term. To spiritually adopt is a commitment to pray for the mothers until 25 December. Prayer options include a "Hail Mary" daily or a rosary daily either individually or as a family. Contact Pam Harrison at 864.233.6200 to enroll.

- Gestation Week 16: Your baby's skin is thin and translucent. It will thicken and develop as your pregnancy progresses but will continue to be almost transparent for quite some time. On your baby's scalp, hair follicles are forming a pattern that will remain for life. This patterning sets the stage for how your baby's hair will grow. New hair follicles don't form after birth, so babies are born with all the hair follicles they will ever have. Your baby's heart is now pumping about 25 quarts of blood each day, and this amount will continue to increase as your baby develops! Psalm 139:14 - I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made

lay carmelite community

The Lay Carmelite is called to the Family of Carmel to be deeply involved in the mission of the Church and to contribute to the sanctification of the secular world through their charisms of prayer, community and service. thank you and recap from friends of st josemaría

On June 22 at 9a Prince of Peace again hosted the Annual St Josemaría Escrivá Feast Day Mass organized by the Friends of St Josemaría. Over 150 people mostly families with many children attended this beautiful Mass, followed by the Veneration of the St Josemaría relic at his shrine and a great reception in the PAC.

The actual feast is 26 June. Fr Tomlinson noted in his sermon the coincidence that the celebration was the Feast Day of St Thomas More. St Josemaría had a great devotion to this saint "for all seasons" making him one of the intercessors of Opus Dei. More's life was a rare example of a true lay-vocation, a kind of "proto Opus Dei member."

Fr Smith heard many confessions. Madison Miller, cantor, and Nathan Barcelona, organist, provided liturgically appropriate and splendid musical accompaniment. Thank you to all who made this a wonderful event including David Sholty and Bob Barcelona our readers, Ian Killough and a few more altar boys, and Atticus Killough who organized the collection.

The beautiful reception was master minded by Tanya Wersinger and her team, particularly Rocio Gelpi and Sofia Gallego. Thank you also to the Prince of Peace staff, especially Ed Carl.

South Carolina Catholic Conference News

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

South Carolina's neighboring states began heavily restricting the practice of abortion when Roe v. Wade was overturned, and consequently, the Palmetto State became an abortion destination. Out-of-state license plates began filling the parking lots of the state's three abortion businesses.

However, in August 2023, the South Carolina Supreme Court ruled that the Fetal Heartbeat and Protection from Abortion Act is constitutional. We now know that the rate of abortions in our state has dramatically reduced because of the heartbeat bill thanks to data released by the S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control (DHEC). The number plummeted nearly 80% from its peak of about 925 deaths per month to roughly 198 per month.

The DHEC report makes it clear that law can influence the behavior of citizens, a truth enumerated by great minds throughout the ages: law is a teacher. St. Thomas Aquinas said the proper effect of law, whether human or divine, is to make people good (I-II.92.1). Aristotle, who was critical of religion, also believed that civil law has a responsibility to lead people to act virtuously.

The upcoming election season will be contentious, and many people are tempted to abstain from casting a vote. However, the effects of the Fetal Heartbeat law show why every vote matters — women have been encouraged to choose life and children have been saved.

Michael F. Acquilano, director of the South Carolina Catholic Conference, said this is due to the work of those who believe in life.

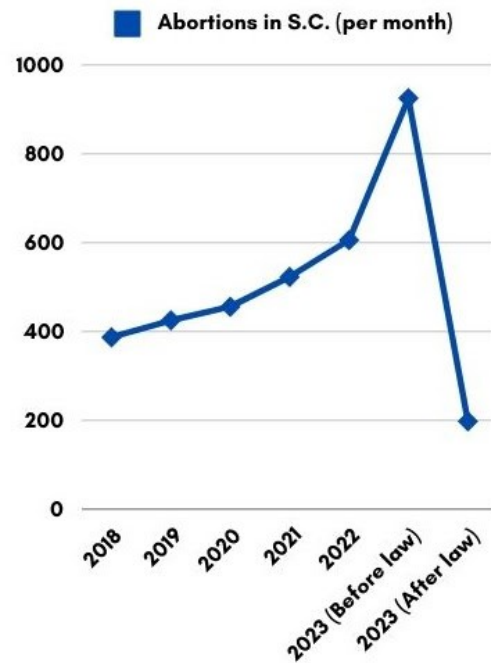

“Thanks to the tireless efforts of pro-life advocates across our state, this law has been passed and upheld by the court,” Acquilano said. “Please remember that this is not the end of the issue; the fight for our mothers and babies will continue. Our goal as Catholics is to make abortion unthinkable by supporting women fully as they choose life.”

Your vote has brought us one step closer. We look forward to the time when all mothers, babies and families will be protected from the pain and destruction of abortion.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the unborn, pray for us!

To learn more or to get involved with the pro-life movement, please visit www.bornforthis.life.

Formed in 2013 by the Bishop of Charleston, the South Carolina Catholic Conference is the means by which the bishop and clergy of the state act together on public policy matters for the mutual well-being of the Catholic Church and all citizens throughout the state.

NOTE: This graph is based on the DHEC abortion statistics for 2018-2023, which reflects abortions reported to DHEC. The yearly numbers were divided by 12 to get monthly rates.

spiritual communion

For all those not able to receive our LORD in the Eucharist:

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

assumption—holy day of obligation

The feast of the Assumption is Thursday, 15 August. It commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven, before her body could begin to decay—a foretaste of our own bodily resurrection at the end of time. It is a Holy Day of Obligation.

Mass times are as follows:

- 7a
- 8.30a
- 12p Latin
