Meet the Carter Family

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

You've heard of a Roman Catholic, but have you ever heard of a Roaming Roman Catholic? Parishioner Megan Reichert Carter coined the phrase due to her journey through many of the parishes in Greenville over her lifetime. Megan, her husband Mike, and their son Lawson became members of Prince of Peace in June 2022.

Megan moved to Greenville with her parents, Don and Marilyn Reichert, and her younger sister, Erin, from New Jersey in 1986. The family joined St. Elizabeth Anne Seaton in Mauldin, where Megan made her first communion. Shortly after, the Reicherts joined a new Catholic mission in Simpsonville called the Maxwell Pointe Catholic Community, later renamed St. Mary Magdalene. It was at St. Mary Magdalene that Megan's servant heart blossomed. By age 14, she had already taken on significant roles within the church, serving as a Eucharistic Minister, Lecturer, and had a weekly holy hour in the adoration chapel. She was also one of the first teen members of LifeTeen and a singer in their "Life Band." Her early achievements in the Catholic community set her on a path of continued service and leadership.

After college, Megan returned to Greenville and joined her family, who had moved to St. Mary's parish downtown. She sang in the choir and helped with the high school youth group there. Through her involvement with the youth group, she was asked to help lead the new high school youth group at Our Lady of the Rosary. During this time, Megan lived in Greer and, on her weekends "off" from her parish duties, attended mass at Prince of Peace, which sparked her initial love for the parish.

Having met so many young adult Catholics through her "roaming" from parish to parish, Megan created the Facebook group "Carolina Catholic Young Adults." The group grew to over 200 members from parishes around the Upstate and held monthly social events. In 2012, the group became part of the larger diocesan young adult group, LucisVia.

Megan and Mike were married at St. Mary's and moved to Chapin, SC, in 2016. While Mike is not Catholic, he has supported raising their son in the faith. When it came time for Lawson to start school, the couple decided to move back to Greenville for the excellent Catholic schools. They chose Prince of Peace for the traditional liturgy and Fr. Smith's active role in the parish and school life.

The Carters love Prince of Peace Church and School and the friends they have made here. The "Roaming Roman" roams no longer as Megan and her family see themselves staying at POP for the foreseeable future.

Megan graduated from Appalachian State University in 2003 with a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance and a Bachelor of Science in Communications. She is the Life Insurance Specialist for Consolidated Planning out of Charlotte, NC. She served in the choir and is an active member of the Catholic Identity Committee with the parish school.

Mike is from Columbus, IN, and graduated from Indiana University in 1999 with a BA in Microbiology. He is a Lieutenant Colonel and Jumpmaster with the Army Reserve, having served four tours of duty as a signal officer in Afghanistan in the early 2000s. He is also the area director of government orthopedic sales for Acumed.

Lawson is a rising second grader at Prince of Peace Catholic School. He loves swimming, hiking, airplanes, and all things military.

spiritual adoption of a pregnancy

The Respect Life Ministry asks members of the parish to spiritually adopt newly pregnant women so that they will have the courage to choose life and carry their baby to term. To spiritually adopt is a commitment to pray for the mothers until 25 December. Contact Pam at 864.233.6200 to enroll.

- Gestation Week 18: You are feeling the baby move. Your baby's ears, nose and lips are all recognizable on an ultrasound. Eyelids, eyebrows, eyelashes, nails and hair are formed too. If you are having a girl, her uterus and fallopian tubes are formed and in place. If you are have a boy, his genitals are visible. Psalm 139:14 - I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made silence!

Please remember that silence should be kept at all times in the Adoration Chapel. The chapel is not your private personal prayer space and as such silence is required at all times. Also, the church. While for the most part we are doing well keeping silence before Mass so people can pray and prepare for Mass, and let's keep that up, please remember that the reason for our silence, reverence for the Blessed Sacrament, does not change when Mass is over. The narthex and the public places outside the church are pleasant places to spend time together after Mass. But let us never leave the church without making a proper thanksgiving for Mass after the priest has exited the church, and if we must speak, please remember to use our quiet inside church voice, even in the narthex. Outside the church most days of the year it is pleasant enough for everyone to use their outside church voice. And please, leave the world behind when you come through the doors of the church and avoid talking about politics and worldly matters. We get enough of that everywhere else, don't bring it into the house of God! Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

POP Soccer teams are forming for boys and girls ages 6 through 11 as well as a co-ed 4/5 squad. To learn more, email Adrienne Haverland at jahaverland@gmail.com for more details. Registration ends August 22nd.

Join the men (18 and older) of the parish who "offer it up" and attack the week every Monday morning from 5.30-6.15a for outdoor exercise and prayer. No fitness background is necessary. Park in the lot between the PAC and McGivney Hall. Participants will offer up prayer and suffering for Fr. Smith, Fr. Tomlinson, all clergy, our own families, and the marriage and family life throughout the Parish. Questions? Contact Paul Pizzuti at pizzuti@fidei.email or 864.501.8954.

religious education forms available

2024-25 Religious Education Forms are now available in the Parish Office or by emailing maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org. Please register early. Classes will begin 18 August, with a parent meeting in the PAC after dropping students off in their classrooms. One parent MUST attend the meeting per family.

If you homeschool your child(ren) and are teaching religion at home, please fill out a Homeschool RE Registration Form and turn it into Maria Barontini. This serves as a record for sacramental preparation and is needed YEARLY. The parish needs records for two full years for First Holy Communion AND two years of records for Confirmation preparation. Please do not come to the parish office expecting your child to receive a sacrament immediately without proper records and attendance at mandatory sacramental events/meetings. The Homeschool RE Registration Form outlines the requirements for each sacrament for our homeschooling families. ALL First Holy Communion YEAR 2 and Confirmation YEAR 2 registration forms must be turned in prior to the yearly December deadline for a child to participate in a spring sacrament.

Important Dates to add to your calendar now:

- 18 August: RE Session #1/Parent Meeting
- 12 September: Mandatory First Holy Communion Parent meeting 6 pm in Croghan Hall (FHC Paperwork will be available in late August)
- 12 September: Mandatory Confirmation Parent meeting 7:30 p in Croghan Hall (Confirmation Paperwork will be available in late August)

spiritual communion

For all those not able to receive our LORD in the Eucharist:

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

friends of st josemaria recollections

The purpose of a recollection is to help participants sanctify their ordinary life in and through their work, family, and recreational activities. In the spirit of Opus Dei, the next Recollections are:

- Men: Friday, 23 August at 7p with a reception to follow.
- Women: Saturday, 24 August at 9a with a reception to follow.

assumption—holy day of obligation

The feast of the Assumption is Thursday, 15 August. It commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven, before her body could begin to decay—a foretaste of our own bodily resurrection at the end of time. Because it signifies the Blessed Virgin’s passing into eternal life, it is the most important of all Marian feasts.

It is a Holy Day of Obligation.

Mass times are as follows:

- 7a
- 8.30a
- 12p Latin
- 7p
