Meet the Upart Family

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Chicagoans for more than two decades, the Upart family made South Carolina their home in 2016, when April Dauscha-Upart received a fortuitous offer to start a fiber arts program at the Fine Arts Center, a performing and visual arts high school in Greenville.

Anatole and April are both converts to Catholicism at the young adult age, although on their respective maternal sides they come from families that were originally Catholic. Traditional sacred art and the study of its history played a crucial role in their conversions. They took to heart the famous words of HH Pope Benedict XVI as an affirmation of their own conversion path: "What earlier generations held as sacred, remains sacred and great for us too..." These words were also a roadmap for what Anatole and April set out to do for the preservation and growth of the Catholic identity and Catholic culture at home and at large. They are parents to now five children: the oldest one is an organist and choir singer, Br Ephrem OP (a Dominican for four years, he just finished his second year of seminary in St. Louis); Veronika (a pre-med college freshman); Perpetua & Ursula (avid readers and newly 6th and 4th graders), and Euphemia (a 6-month-old inveterate traveler).

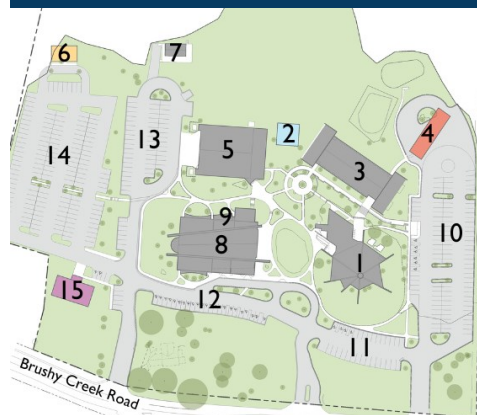

Born and raised in Louisville, KY, April went to college in Chicago (where she met Anatole) and to grad school in Richmond, VA. She has exhibited her work nationally, at the Fuller Craft Museum, MANA Contemporary, and Tracey Morgan Gallery, and internationally in Germany, South Africa, Israel, Portugal, and Serbia. She sat on the boards of various arts organization, such as Surface Design Association (SDA); did artist residencies in places such as McColl Center and Vermont Studio Center; and taught at Penland School of Craft.

Born in Belarus (then part of USSR), Anatole Upart had come to the United States as a refugee with his parents in early 1990s. Dr Upart has taught at numerous universities and is currently a Lecturer in Architectural History at the State University of New York in Binghamton. Anatole was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts (London, UK, 2022). That same year, Don Pedro of Bourbon-Two Sicilies, the Duke of Calabria and the Heir to the Neapolitan throne, invested Dr Upart as a Knight of Merit of the Sacred Military Constantinian Order of St. George. In 2024, he was elected an Associate Fellow of the Royal Historical Society in UK and also became the Chair of the Americas Branch of the Society for Court Studies. For three years (2021-2024), he has been the chair of the Historic Review Board (known as Design Review Board – Neighborhoods before 2023) for the City of Greenville.

Despite (or maybe because of) their busy schedules, the life of the Upart family, spread so thinly across both sides of the Atlantic with different exhibitions, conferences, semesters, is centered around the Holy Mass – it appears to be the best (and strongest) anchor one can hope for and one could be thankful to God for in this life.

Happenings & Needs

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

spiritual adoption of a pregnancy

The Respect Life Ministry asks members of the parish to spiritually adopt newly pregnant women so that they will have the courage to choose life and carry their baby to term. To spiritually adopt is a commitment to pray for the mothers until 25 December. Prayer options include a "Hail Mary" daily or a rosary daily either individually or as a family. Contact Pam Harrison at 864.233.6200 to enroll.

- Gestation Week 17: Your baby's skeleton is changing from soft cartilage to bone. Sweat glands are starting to develop. By next week, the layers of your baby's skin will be fully formed. Psalm 139:14 - I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made about fr timothy davison

Fr Timothy Davison has retired locally and will help out at our parish as his time allows. Here's a little bit about him and his background in his own words:

I am a retired priest from the Diocese of Steubenville, Ohio and am living with Loretta and Spencer Williams. I have been a priest for 39 years and have served in Tulsa, Oklahoma and in the Diocese of Steubenville for the past seven years. I am from Ohio originally and have eleven siblings. Educationally I have a licentiate in Mariology and have traveled to many of the more famous Marian Sanctuaries. I look forward to helping out at Prince of Peace parish. - Father Timothy Davison theology on tap for young adults

The Diocese of Charleston's Young Adults will gather for the next Theology on Tap at Fireforge Crafted Beer in Greenville on 5 September, 3 October, 7 November and 5 December. Time TBD. To learn more, contact Mike Sylvester at msylvester@charlestdiocese.org.

soccer!

POP Soccer teams are forming for boys and girls ages 6 through 11 as well as a co-ed 4/5 squad. To learn more, email Adrienne Haverland at jahaverland@gmail.com for more details. Registration ends August 22nd.

monday morning workout for men

Join the men (18 and older) of the parish who "offer it up" and attack the week every Monday morning from 5.30-6.15a for outdoor exercise and prayer. No fitness background is necessary. Park in the lot between the PAC and McGivney Hall. Participants will offer up prayer and suffering for Fr. Smith, Fr. Tomlinson, all clergy, our own families, and the marriage and family life throughout the Parish. Questions? Contact Paul Pizzuti at pizzuti@fidei.email or 864.501.8954.

religious education forms available

2024-25 Religious Education Forms are now available in the Parish Office or by emailing Maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org.

Please register early. Classes will begin 18 August, with a parent meeting in the PAC after dropping students off in their classrooms. One parent MUST attend the meeting per family.

If you homeschool your child(ren) and are teaching religion at home, please fill out a Homeschool RE Registration Form and turn it into Maria Barontini. This serves as a record for sacramental preparation and is needed YEARLY. The parish needs records for two full years for First Holy Communion AND two years of records for Confirmation preparation. Please do not come to the parish office expecting your child to receive a sacrament immediately without proper records and attendance at mandatory sacramental events/meetings. The Homeschool RE Registration Form outlines the requirements for each sacrament for our homeschooling families. ALL First Holy Communion YEAR 2 and Confirmation YEAR 2 registration forms must be turned in prior to the yearly December deadline for a child to participate in a spring sacrament.

Important Dates to add to your calendar now:

- 18 August: RE Session #1/Parent Meeting
- 12 September: Mandatory First Holy Communion Parent meeting 6 pm in Croghan Hall (FHC Paperwork will be available in late August)
- 12 September: Mandatory Confirmation Parent meeting 7:30 p in Croghan Hall (Confirmation Paperwork will be available in late August)

Best of the Upstate 2024

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

PRINCE OF PEACE CATHOLIC CHURCH WINS 'BEST OF UPSTATE' AWARD FOR THE THIRD YEAR IN A ROW

Prince of Peace Catholic School also won two 'Best of' awards

Prince of Peace Catholic Church and School is thrilled to announce we've been recognized with three "Best of the Upstate" awards from the annual contest run by the Greenville News. More than a 167,000 votes were cast.

Prince of Peace Catholic Church took home the Best Place of Worship for the third year in the row and the school took home Best Private School and Best Preschool in the Upstate.

"The Holy Mass is a sacred time where we are able to experience heaven for a moment," said Father Christopher Smith, pastor at Prince of Peace Catholic Church. "We strive to engage all the senses during Mass and invite every member of the congregation to worship in a way that brings them into that heavenly space. We are honored to accept this award and invite anyone interested in learning about the Catholic faith to our beautiful Masses."

Prince of Peace Catholic Church is an extraordinary parish for ordinary people, providing an authentic Catholic experience for parishioners and visitors alike. The parish turns 50 years old this year, is part of the Diocese of Charleston, and has many ministries that cater to an extremely diverse parish. .

Prince of Peace Catholic School is the principle apostolate of the Church for the handing on of the Catholic faith. The school encompasses grades K3-8th and has served as a beacon of academic excellence and spiritual growth since 2002.

"We are supremely proud of our Catholic school, its students, and staff," said Father Smith. "One of my greatest joys is to visit with the students and see how they are growing not only academically in a challenging environment, but spiritually in their Catholic faith. Our school is a true testament to the commitment of our parish to support a place of education where children can be given the opportunity to graduate with academic achievements and a deep, vibrant faith."

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

spiritual communion

For all those not able to receive our LORD in the Eucharist:

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

friends of st josemaria recollections

The purpose of a recollection is to help participants sanctify their ordinary life in and through their work, family, and recreational activities. In the spirit of Opus Dei, the next Recollections are:

- Men: Friday, 23 August at 7p with a reception to follow.
- Women: Saturday, 24 August at 9a with a reception to follow.

assumption—holy day of obligation

The feast of the Assumption is Thursday, 15 August. It commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven, before her body could begin to decay—a foretaste of our own bodily resurrection at the end of time. Because it signifies the Blessed Virgin's passing into eternal life, it is the most important of all Marian feasts.

It is a Holy Day of Obligation.

Mass times are as follows:

- 7a
- 8.30a
- 12p Latin
- 7p

deacons preaching series—apostles' creed

Our Deacons will preach a series on the Apostle's Creed on weekends from 9 June to 18 August. Parishioners may reference Ludwig Ott's Fundamentals of Catholic Dogma and the Catechism of the Catholic Church to prepare.

- ~~9 June: I Believe in God the Father Almighty with Dcn Gus Suarez~~

If you miss a sermon, you may listen to the recording on the Monday following via the parish website ("homilies" is found on the main menu HERE) & Apple Podcast

first friday teen holy hour

Calling all teenagers! Join a group of teens who meet for a Holy Hour before our Lord present in the Eucharist on First Fridays from 6.30-7.30p in the Church. Afterward, teens socialize in the parking lot. Parents are encouraged to come—some remain in the parking lot. Questions? Contact Dcn Michael Cavin.

vape, drug tobacco and alcohol policy

The campus is drug free, vape free, and tobacco free at all times. No individual may bring or consume alcohol on the Prince of Peace campus without prior authorization from the pastor. This policy is implemented to ensure the safety and well-being of all attendees and to maintain a respectful and orderly environment. Violation of this policy will result in appropriate disciplinary action. For permission or further inquiries, please contact Phil Head, Director of Administration.
