Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends,

We see that death is gain, life is loss. Paul says: For me life is Christ, and death a gain. What does “Christ” mean but to die in the body, and receive the breath of life? Let us then die with Christ, to live with Christ. We should have a daily familiarity with death, a daily desire for death. By this kind of detachment our soul must learn to free itself from the desires of the body. It must soar above earthly lusts to a place where they cannot come near, to hold it fast. It must take on the likeness of death, to avoid the punishment of death. The law of our fallen nature is at war with the law of our reason and subjects the law of reason to the law of error. What is the remedy? Who will set me free from this body of death? The grace of God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

We have a doctor to heal us; let us use the remedy he prescribes. The remedy is the grace of Christ, the dead body our own. Let us then be exiles from our body, so as not to be exiles from Christ. Though we are still in the body, let us not give ourselves to the things of the body. We must not reject the natural rights of the body, but we must desire before all else the gifts of grace. What more need be said? It was by the death of one man that the world was redeemed. Christ did not need to die if he did not want to, but he did not look on death as something to be despised, something to be avoided, and he could have found no better means to save us than by dying. Thus his death is life for all. We are sealed with the sign of his death; when we pray we preach his death; when we offer sacrifice we proclaim his death. His death is victory; his death is a sacred sign; each year his death is celebrated with solemnity by the whole world.

What more should we say about his death since we use this divine example to prove that it was death alone that won freedom from death, and death itself was its own redeemer? Death is then no cause for mourning, for it is the cause of mankind's salvation. Death is not something to be avoided, for the Son of God did not think it beneath his dignity, nor did he seek to escape it. Death was not part of nature; it became part of nature. God did not decree death from the beginning; he prescribed it as a remedy. Human life was condemned because of sin to unrelenting labor and unbearable sorrow and so began to experience the burden of wretchedness. There had to be a limit to its evils; death had to restore what life had forfeited. Without the assistance of grace, immortality is more of a burden than a blessing.

The soul has to turn away from the aimless paths of this life, from the defilement of an earthly body; it must reach out to those assemblies in heaven (though it is given only to the saints to be admitted to them) to sing the praises of God. We learn from Scripture how God's praise is sung to the music of the harp: Great and wonderful are your deeds, Lord God Almighty; just and true are your ways, King of the nations. Who will not revere and glorify your nature? You alone are holy; all nations will come and worship before you. The soul must also desire to witness your nuptials, Jesus, and to see your bride escorted from earthly to heavenly realities, as all rejoice and sing: All flesh will come before you. No longer will the bride be held in subjection to this passing world but will be made one with the spirit. Above all else, holy David prayed that he might see and gaze on this: One thing I have asked of the Lord, this I shall pray for: to dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, and to see how gracious is the Lord.

From Saint Ambrose upon the death of his brother Satyrus.

Fr. Christopher Smith

spiritual adoption of a pregnancy

The Respect Life Ministry asks members of the parish to spiritually adopt newly pregnant women so that they will have the courage to choose life and carry their baby to term. To spiritually adopt is a commitment to pray for the mothers until 25 December. Contact Pam at 864.233.6200 to enroll.

- Gestation Week 32: Your baby's body is stashing away important minerals such as iron, calcium, and phosphorus. The iron stores your baby builds now last for the first 6 months of life until your little one starts eating solid food. By next month, your baby's lungs will be fully formed. For now, your baby is practicing breathing by inhaling and exhaling amniotic fluid. If you are having a boy, his external genitalia are formed and his testicles have started descending to the scrotum. If you are having a girl, her uterus and ovaries are in place with all the eggs she will have. Psalm 139:14 - I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made

new years retreat

Plus, plenty of time to reflect upon the New Year in our sacred spaces while enjoying the fireplace in our lounge or exploring the beautiful grounds of the Catholic Conference Center in Hickory, NC. Two nights, December 30-January 1. As a special treat, there will be a New Year's Eve banquet with traditional festivities. The last two years have sold out, so register now at www.catholicconference.org/new-years. # Happenings & Needs

all saints' day—1 november

All Saints' Day is Friday, 1 November and is a Holy Day of Obligation. This is when the Church commemorates all saints. A great prayer to be said on this date is the Litany of the Saints. Masses will be celebrated at:

- 7a Quiet Mass
- 8.30a Sung Mass
- 12p Latin Mass
- 7p English Sung Mass

Procession of the saints will be Friday, 1 November at 7p. Children must arrive by 6.40p. Children are asked to dress up as saints or bring a picture of their favorite saint, and process into Church! They may leave before Mass, if necessary.

all souls' day—2 november

Masses to pray for the souls of the just who are being prepared for the glorious vision of God will be at:

- 8a Latin Mass
- 9a English Mass
- 10a Latin Mass
- All registered households receive 2 envelopes for All Souls Day in the September/October packet. One is for offertory on All Souls Day. The other is to write on the front the name(s) of your beloved deceased (drop in the offertory during October to be placed on the altar of remembrance across November).
- Add your loved one's name who has died since All Souls Day 2023 to be read aloud before Mass by contacting the parish office. If your loved one had a funeral at our parish in this time, they're already added.
- The St Joseph Altar will include candles of those parishioners who died since All Souls Day 2023. Also, a vase of white roses will be added in memory of all miscarried babies with a single red rose for all babies who died to abortion.
- The All Souls Novena will be in the "How to Help Send Souls to Heaven" packet that was in the bulletin the weekend of 20 October.

board of remembrance

Add images of your deceased loved ones to the Board of Remembrance at the St Joseph Altar, which will be set up as a Requiem Altar for the month of November. You may pick your picture up at the end of November or it will be stored in the parish office.
