Letter from the Pastoral Associate for Children's Catechesis

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Parishioners,

Parents are the primary educators and influencers of their children in the Catholic faith, and at Prince of Peace Catholic Church, our Religious Education program exists to assist families in building a strong foundation in faith for their children. The 2024-2025 program is off to a great start with 186 students registered from grades K5 through Confirmation Year Two. Our dedicated team of 20 volunteer catechists helps guide our students each week.

In the Diocese of Charleston, students are required to participate in two years of preparation for both First Holy Communion (FHC) and Confirmation. Traditionally, this means students should be enrolled in 1st, 2nd, 7th, and 8th grade Religious Education classes at a minimum. However, we strongly encourage families to have their children participate every year, beginning in K5, to build a continuous and deep understanding of their faith.

If students only attend until their First Holy Communion in 2nd grade and then disappear from the program for several years, they miss out on key teachings such as the Ten Commandments, the Sacraments, general knowledge about the Bible, and the Mass. Returning in 7th grade, with the knowledge of a second grader makes it much harder to prepare for Confirmation. Think of it like skipping out on math after 2nd grade and then expecting to be ready for algebra in high school.

We've noticed an interesting trend: many of our older students were in third grade or younger when COVID-19 interrupted their studies in March 2020. These students are now struggling with foundational concepts they would have learned during their time away from the program. Our program is working diligently to help them catch up, but this situation underscores the importance of staying engaged in Religious Education year after year.

This year, we have 24 students in our First Holy Communion Year Two class, and a total of 55 students across our parish—including POPCS and homeschoolers—preparing for First Holy Communion in 2025. Likewise, 40 students from our program, POPCS, and homeschool families are preparing for Confirmation in 2025. While 40 homeschool families have submitted their Homeschool Religious Education form, we know some families have not yet submitted theirs. We encourage all homeschooling families to submit their form so we can keep in touch about sacramental preparation and order the correct number of supplies in the summer.

We ask for your prayers for our students and their families as they prepare for First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Additionally, you can support our Religious Education program through donations for the service projects we support (like Box of Joy in October and Birthright in January) or by considering a volunteer role as a catechist or substitute in the 2025-2026 year. Your involvement can make a lasting impact on the faith formation of our parish's children.

Lastly, I'd like to announce that we have selected a week for VBS 2025. We have selected the week of 22-27 June for VBS, moving it to the end of June due to the 4th of July. We need many volunteers for this special week on our Prince of Peace campus. If you're interested in helping, even for a day or with setup, please contact me by email at maria.barontini@princeofpeacetailors.org. Please be on the lookout for VBS registration in early February!

spiritual adoption of a pregnancy

The Respect Life Ministry asks members of the parish to spiritually adopt newly pregnant women so that they will have the courage to choose life and carry their baby to term. To spiritually adopt is a commitment to pray for the mothers until 25 December. Contact Pam at 864.233.6200 to enroll.

- Gestation Week 34: Rapid weight gain includes increase in brain weight as the myelin sheath around nerves is thickening during the last weeks of pregnancy. The immune system is continuing to mature so that the baby can fight infections. Pressure from the baby being head down may cause the mother to urinate more frequently. Psalm 139:14 - I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made

adult faith formation survey

Prince of Peace is committed to providing structured Bible study and faith formation courses for adults and aims to schedule these at times that accommodate as many as possible. Due to space and timing constraints, we are limited in our options, but we strive to make participation accessible.

immaculate conception

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary celebrates the conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the womb of her mother, St Anne, free from original sin by virtue of the merits of her son Jesus. rorate mass during advent

The Rorate Caeli Mass is a traditional Advent devotion wherein the Mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary for Advent is offered just before dawn. The Rorate Mass is lit only by candlelight. Because it is a votive Mass in Mary’s honor, white vestments are worn instead of Advent violet. A solemn High Rorate Mass will be 7 December.

giving tuesday

As we look forward to the coming season, let us shift our attention to an important upcoming event: #GivingTuesday. This global day of giving on 3 December provides an opportunity for our parish community at Prince of Peace to come together in support of our Annual Fund. The Annual Fund plays a crucial role in keeping tuition costs lower for all families by offsetting the true cost of education and providing targeted financial aid for families in need.

Your generosity on #GivingTuesday will directly impact our primary apostolate of handing on the faith, ensuring that every child who enters our school receives an excellent, faith-filled education. Please prayerfully consider joining us in this vital effort. Every gift, no matter the size, brings us closer to fulfilling our mission and supporting our students and families.

fr smith's advent reading

Jean-Jacques Olier was a 17th century priest who had the most fashionable parish in Paris, but noticed that his college students at the Sorbonne were basically pagans, and that many of his people did not really understand the spiritual meaning of what they saw and did at Mass. So he set about making the Church of Saint Sulpice a model of Christian faith and practice, and formed generations of priests in sanctity and communal life. His book, The Mystical Meaning of the Ceremonies of the Mass, remains even today as a classic of the spiritual life. His poetic approach to theology sees in every rite and ceremony of the Mass a parallel to the life of Christ, and in which we access that life. This is not just a history of the Mass, but a spiritual meditation on the sacred liturgy. Fr Smith said reading it, "I will never approach the altar the same way again after having read Olier's book!" Order it from Amazon here.

We have a vase of white roses for all miscarried babies and a single red rose for all aborted babies.
