Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends,

Dom Prosper Guéranger, the founder of Solesmes Abbey in France, wrote a multi-volume commentary on our worship called The Liturgical Year. His explanation of why we cover the images and crosses in the church during the last two weeks of Lent, that season within the season traditionally called Passiontide, is particularly striking:

Everything around us urges us to mourn. The images of the saints, the very crucifix on our altar, are veiled from our sight. The Church is oppressed with grief. During the first four weeks of Lent, she compassionated her Jesus fasting in the desert; His coming sufferings and crucifixion and death are what now fill her with anguish. We read in today's Gospel, that the Jews threaten to stone the Son of God as a blasphemer: but His hour is not yet come. He is obliged to flee and hide Himself. It is to express this deep humiliation, that the Church veils the cross. A God hiding Himself, that He may evade the anger of men - what a mystery! Is it weakness? Is it, that He fears death? No; we shall soon see Him going out to meet His enemies: but at present He hides Himself from them, because all that had been prophesied regarding Him has not been fulfilled. Besides, His death is not to be by stoning: He is to die upon a cross, the tree of malediction, which, from that time forward, is to be the tree of life. Let us humble ourselves, as we see the Creator of heaven and earth thus obliged to hide Himself from men, who are bent on His destruction! Let us go back, in thought, to the sad day of the first sin, when Adam and Eve hid themselves because a guilty conscience told them they were naked. Jesus has come to assure us of our being pardoned, and lo! He hides Himself, not because He is naked - He that is to the saints the garb of holiness and immortality - but because He made Himself weak, that He might make us strong. Our first parents sought to hide themselves from the sight of God; Jesus hides Himself from the eye of men. But it will not be thus for ever. The day will come when sinners, from whose anger He now flees, will pray to the mountains to fall on them and shield them from His gaze; but their prayer will not be granted, and they shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven, with much power and majesty.

The first part of Lent was about the spiritual struggle of ourselves in the desert with Christ. Today, we transition to more focused attention on the suffering and death of Christ. There is a somberness in the air. The already austere Lenten atmosphere becomes even more strange and stark. This week, you will have your last multiple opportunities to receive the forgiveness of Christ in preparation for Holy Week next week: Tuesday & Thursday: 7-9a, 11a-1p, 6-8p; Wednesday: 7.30-9a, 11a-1p, 6-8p.

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

fasting & abstaining

Every person between the age of 18 and 60 must fast and abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The Fridays of Lent are also days of required abstinence from meat.

The USCCB reminds us:

For members of the Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

All Fridays of the year are days of penitential abstinence, and in Lent this obligation is further focused and sharpened to help prepare our hearts for the mysteries of Easter.

lenten confession schedule

We are required to go to Confession and confess our mortal sins at least once a year, and go to Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter Season. This is called the Easter Duty.

easter music

At Easter Masses, the St. Cecilia Choir will sing the monumental Missa Papae Marcelli by Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina, in honor of the composer's 500th birthday. The Mass was likely composed in 1562 in response to Pope Marcellus's insistence on clarity of text in sacred polyphony. Following the Council of Trent's liturgical reforms, the piece was celebrated as an ideal model of sacred music, sung at Papal Coronations for many centuries.

esto vir—a men's ministry

Esto Vir ("Be a Man") is a ministry whose mission is to foster a fraternal bond among our Brothers in Christ—whether single, discerning, or married—supporting one another in our daily lives. This ministry offers opportunities for fellowship through activities such as hikes, shared prayer, vocational encouragement, book studies, and more. We invite you to connect with us today. For more information, please call or text John O. at 864.354.5680. St. Joseph, pray for us!

grief ministry workshop

The Diocese of Charleston invites you to attend a Grief Ministry Workshop hosted at St. Rafka's Church on Friday, 11 April from 8a-4p for $10 (includes lunch). Led by Deacon Henry DeMena, an experienced Bereavement Counselor, this essential training will equip participants with practical tools to walk alongside those experiencing profound loss.

As those in ministry often observe, "If you've seen one person's experience with grief, you've seen one person's experience with grief." This truth reminds us that grief manifests uniquely in each individual. Through this workshop, attendees will learn how to provide compassionate support that honors each person's journey without imposing expectations or timelines.

Whether you're considering joining your parish bereavement team or seeking to better support friends and family through loss, this workshop will provide valuable guidance and insight. For more information, contact cbrown@charlestondiocese.org or 803.554.6088.
