From our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

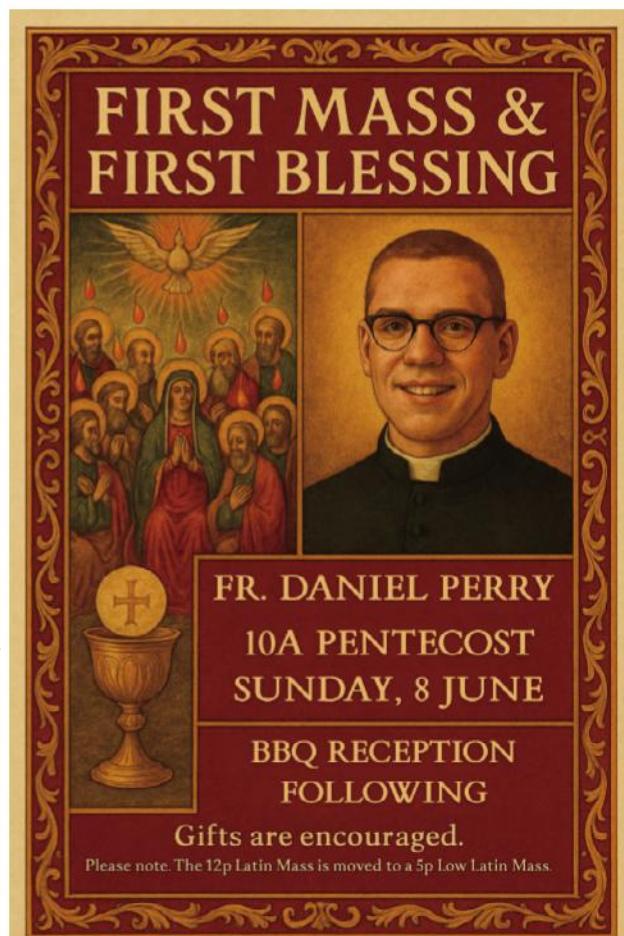

Dear Parishioners,

Next week is an historical occasion within the celebration of our 50 years as a parish. Daniel Perry will be ordained a priest of Jesus Christ on Friday of this week in Charleston and offer a Solemn Mass of Thanksgiving on Pentecost Sunday at 10a. We ask that all of you attend this Mass to support our new priest! There will be an amazing party afterwards, because this is really something to celebrate. Come receive your first blessing and kiss the freshly chrismated palms of the new priest and go feast! The 12p Mass will be postponed until 5p as a Low Mass, so remember there is no Noon Mass next week. Also, if you are thinking of a gift, which is highly appropriate, a nice heartfelt letter and cash is the way to go! An ordination is like a wedding, and so there are lots of expenses that the new priest incurs, so be generous.

This weekend, one of our home grown seminarians, Jack Kauffman, will move into the rectory for a summer experience of gentlemanly clerical living. The Diocese has asked him to take a secular job to gain real-world work experience, which I think is a great opportunity. He has been assigned to serve at St. Anthony's on Sundays. When I was a seminarian on summer assignment, I always had families inviting me over to their house for dinner or out for lunch. My dance card was always full and it gave me such a wonderful insight into the life! So please, please, reach out to him after Mass and give him your contact information and an invite. It means more than you know.

Father Perry will have a brief period of rest before taking up his first assignment as Parochial Vicar at St Gregory the Great in Bluffton, the second largest parish in the Diocese. There are a lot of retirees down there, so I told him he will memorise the anointing and funeral rites really fast, but there is also a flourishing Hispanic community, a large parish school and the St John Paul II High School nearby. He will serve under Msgr Ronald Cellini, who was actually my second pastor as a priest, and I know that the new priest will have a lot of good priestly work to keep him busy. So spend time with him now because he will be busy and far away!

Fr. Christopher Smith

st isidore garden

Three years ago, a group of parishioners began cultivating the St. Isidore Garden—a peaceful space on our parish grounds that now yields organic produce shared with the poor through the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

More than a place to grow food, the garden offers a hands-on way for children to learn about nature, responsibility, and the beauty of creation. Parish garden classes have helped instill in our young people a sense of peace and purpose, rooted in the work of their hands and the fruits of the earth.

The St. Isidore Garden invites all parishioners— young and old—to step outside, connect with nature, and encounter the Divine. If you haven't visited yet, summer is a perfect time. Each Monday at 10a, volunteers gather to harvest. Feel free to stop by, take a quiet walk, or enjoy a picnic at the nearby tables.

This garden is for all of us—come be nourished in both body and spirit.

spiritual communion

For all those not able to receive our LORD in the Eucharist:

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

women's study

The Women's Bible Study group meets Wednesdays at 7p in Guadalupe Hall studying: Courageous Love: A Bible Study on Holiness for Women by Stacy Mitch. This spiritually rich and accessible book explores the lives of women in Scripture and invites us to grow in holiness through practical insight, reflection, and prayer.

Meetings will be weekly through 9 July, then break for the remainder of the summer.

No homework or prep is required—the group reads aloud together during each session. If you're not able to purchase a book right now, don't let that keep you from attending. Just bring an open heart, and perhaps a notebook and pen if you're a note-taker.

Book purchasing options:

- Order from St. Paul Center/Emmaus Road
- Order from Amazon
- Kindle version

All women are welcome—whether you're returning or joining for the first time!

heading out of town this summer?

Your parish never takes a vacation — and your support makes it all possible! Even while you travel, your continued giving helps us sustain ministries, keep the lights on, and serve our community. Consider setting up online giving or making a gift before you go.

unlocking the book of revelation

Many Christians find the Book of Revelation mysterious—or even intimidating. Join Steve Wood, Catholic convert and seasoned teacher, for a two-hour seminar that brings clarity, confidence, and insight into one of the most misunderstood books of the Bible.

Choose one of two sessions (held at Christ on Main—14 S Main Street, Greenville):

- Monday, 16 June at 7p
- Saturday, 21 June 21 at 8.30a

Discover how Revelation aligns with the Catechism, what it reveals about the past, present, and future, and how it can deepen your faith today.

3rd Quarter FY25 Financial Statements Note

The Year-to-Date (Y-T-D) Offertory is now tracking to Budget, although slightly behind the previous year because of the quarterly timing difference of Easter. All Other Revenue is now ahead of Budget, but slightly behind the previous year. Our Parish Expenses continue to be managed and show that we are ahead of Budget at the bottom line. The net result is showing a $128K Y-T-D surplus and a Y-T-D favorable variance to Budget of $73K for the 3rd Quarter of our fiscal year. The balance sheet shows that we have withdrawn $100,000 from our savings account to help fund our Y-T-D Capital Expenditures. Our Y-T-D Capital Expenditures are $278K as we have completed the St. Joseph Workshop (maintenance building), the pew and kneeler projects, combined with various other infrastructure improvements. These projects were funded from our recently ended 5-year Bicentennial Campaign, savings withdrawals combined with our operating surpluses. We believe we are now on track to complete the fiscal year meeting our Offertory Budget forecast while completing many capital projects throughout this past fiscal year. As always, we sincerely thank you all for your continued financial contributions without which we cannot achieve so many wonderful things for the parish and the school.

CASC 2025 Reminder

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

LET'S BE TOGETHER.

VOLUME 2025, ISSUE 5
Diocese of Charleston

Sharing the Sweetness of the Gospel for others.

THE BEE IS MORE HONORED THAN OTHER ANIMALS NOT BECAUSE SHE LABORS, BUT BECAUSE SHE LABORS FOR OTHERS.
- Saint John Chrysostom

The Catholic Appeal of South Carolina 2025 is underway! A tremendous thank you to those who have already provided support. Your gift sustains the work of the diocese's many programs and ministries, which include educating our seminarians; sustaining and growing Catholic schools; providing for the hungry, poor and lonely; and evangelizing future generations through Youth and Young Adult Ministry programs, just to name a few.

If you have not contributed yet, please prayerfully consider joining your brothers and sisters in Christ across the state and make a donation. At the end of May, you will receive information in the mail on ways to give.
