Head of the Virgin

by Leonardo da Vinci,
1508–12,

The Metropolitan Museum of Arts, New-York City, USA.

This image, a practice chalk drawing for a later painting, shows how masterful Leonardo was at his craft. The Virgin's profile is serene and has been described as possessing "magical beauty." It's hard not to notice the love in her eyes.

mother's day appreciation

This Mother's Day, we give heartfelt thanks for the women who have nurtured life in both body and soul, who have sacrificed quietly, and who have reflected the tenderness and strength of Christ's love in the home and beyond. Some wisdom about mothers:

St. John Paul II

- "The history of every person is marked by the presence of a woman whose name is 'mother.'" (Letter to Women, 1995)
- "The maternal mission is not limited to the biological dimension. Through the maternal experience, the woman discovers and expresses her profound vocation to the service of life." (Angelus, 12 Jan 1992)
- "The mother is the central person in the life of her child. This is a fact which shapes the future of humanity." (General Audience, 20 Mar 1996)

Pope Benedict XVI

- "In their simple and generous love, mothers are a living reflection of God's love—a love that is free, faithful, and fruitful." (Homily, Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, 1 Jan 2007)
- "Mothers often transmit the deepest sense of religious practice. They plant and nourish the seed of faith in their children." (General Audience, 7 Jan 2009)

Pope Francis

- "Mothers are the strongest antidote to the spread of self-centered individualism. It is they who testify to the beauty of life." (General Audience, 7 Jan 2015)
- "A society without mothers would be inhumane, because mothers always know how to give witness—even in the worst of times—to tenderness, dedication, and moral strength." (General Audience, 7 Jan 2015)

St. Zélie Martin

- "Above all, I wish to make saints of my children." (Letter to her brother Isidore, Sept 1877)

St. Augustine

- "She bore me, wept over me, for my eternal salvation." (Confessions, Book 3, on St. Monica)

Happenings & Needs

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

mothers of lu

In the year 1881 in a little village near Turin, Italy the mothers of the village, with the guidance of their priest, decided to gather together for a weekly hour of Eucharistic Adoration, Mass and community prayer. Their prayer was a simple one in which they asked God to grant to them an increase of vocations in their homes and parish. Through their prayers, a joy and deep piety developed in the homes of the families of Lu. Over a period of time from this tiny village came 323 vocations! There is a famous picture which was published in 1946 with many of these religious pictured on the steps of the church. St. John Bosco spent time in Lu and was the spiritual Father to Blessed Philip Rinaldi, of the Rinaldi family who experienced seven vocations. Our parish began to say this simple "Mothers of Lu" prayer after the 12n Mass more than 6 years ago. In that time, our parish has joyfully experienced 5 young men and women saying "yes" to a vocation to the religious life. There are a few more who are currently prayerfully considering joining the religious life as well. Parishioners from the 10a and 12p Masses gather at our Lady's altar after mass and say this Mother's of Lu prayer as a community. Some parishioners have also begun to offer a weekly adoration hour as well. At Prince of Peace this prayer is not specifically for the mothers of our parish. We encourage anyone who wishes to join us at our Lady's altar after Mass as well as to encourage anyone who wishes to begin these prayers after the 5p (Sat) and 8a (Sun) Mass times. The prayers can be found in a bound folder placed on a small table to the right of our Lady's altar.

Mothers of Lu Prayer at Prince of Peace:

O God, if it be Your will, please accept the sons and daughters of our Parish to serve you as priests and religious. Help us to live as good and holy Christians giving good example to them. Help us to guide the children of our parish to always do what is right so that they may receive the grace of God to become holy priests and religious, if it be Your Holy Will. Amen.

esto vir—a men's ministry

Esto Vir ("Be a Man") is a ministry whose mission is to foster a fraternal bond among our Brothers in Christ—whether single, discerning, or married—supporting one another in our daily lives. This ministry offers opportunities for fellowship through activities such as hikes, shared prayer, vocational encouragement, book studies, and more. We invite you to connect with us today. For more information, please call or text John O. at 864.354.5680. St. Joseph, pray for us!
