Our Mission

To share the fullness of the Gospel to all we encounter in our lives by equipping disciples to create and strengthen a personal relationship with Christ. By the grace of God, we are called to strive for personal holiness, participate fully in the vibrant life of the Church's Tradition and transform the world.

Guest Column: Pastoral Associate for Children's Catechesis

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Parishioners,

As a Diocese, we see a significant drop-off in participation among young people after Confirmation. But in truth, Confirmation is not the finish line—it's the starting point of a deeper, more mature walk with Christ. That journey requires ongoing effort, curiosity, and above all, a lifelong commitment to learning.

As Catholics, we believe that faith is not static. It's a living, growing relationship with God that must be nurtured throughout our entire lives. Just as our minds and bodies continue to develop, so too must our spiritual lives. The Catechism reminds us, "Faith seeks understanding" (CCC 158). This means we are called—at every age and stage of life—to keep asking questions, seeking truth, and deepening our understanding of God, Scripture, and Church teaching. Lifelong learning is not optional for Christians—it's essential to our spiritual growth.

Think about it: Would you trust a doctor who stopped learning after medical school? Would you want a teacher who never read another book after college? Our faith deserves the same dedication. The saints understood this well—St. Jerome spent his life studying Scripture, St. Thomas Aquinas never stopped exploring theology, and St. Teresa of Avila continued growing in prayer and mystical understanding well into her later years.

All parishioners of Prince of Peace are invited to grow in wisdom, knowledge, and understanding—three vital Gifts of the Holy Spirit we received at Confirmation. Throughout the Gospels, we see Jesus constantly teaching, inviting His disciples into an ongoing relationship of formation and growth. The Church, in her wisdom, continues that mission by calling all of us to deeper conversion and continued learning.

To our adults: You have so much wisdom to share! Invite our high school and young adults to your Bible studies, discussion groups, and ministries. You may be surprised by what their youthful insights bring—and they will benefit greatly from seeing strong, faith-filled Catholic adult role models living out their faith with joy and authenticity.

To our former Confirmation students: Your journey is just beginning! Keep studying your faith with the same energy you bring to everything else. Connect with other Catholic teens who share your values. Come to our awesome CYO starting this fall. Join one of our adult classes. Ask me for book recommendations—and if I don't have one on a topic you're curious about, I'll connect you with someone who does. The more you learn, the more equipped you'll be to live out your faith with confidence and clarity in our complex world.

Many parents rediscover the richness of their childhood faith when they begin teaching their own children about God. Some who had drifted away find themselves reconnecting with Christ alongside their child's religious education journey. As Jesus tells us in Matthew 18:3, "Amen, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven." We are all called to learn with the humility, openness, and wonder of a child—never assuming we've "graduated" from the faith or have nothing left to discover about our infinitely loving God.

Whether it's joining an adult Bible study, reading a spiritual classic, diving into a Catholic podcast, or exploring one of the many classes and resources offered here at Prince of Peace—there are countless ways to nourish your growing faith.

Very soon, we'll be introducing a new resource for our entire parish family, and we encourage everyone—especially our recent Confirmation students—to engage with it both at home and here at the parish. Stay tuned for more information and a guest speaker announcement this fall. We're excited to share this opportunity for growth with you all.

This week, ask yourself: What am I doing to keep my faith alive, informed, and growing? How can I take one small step forward in my spiritual journey?

over 900 books, socializing and fun await

The Blessed McGivney Hall is open on Sundays after the 10a Mass. Grab a hot drink or breakfast, peruse a library of over 900 vetted Catholic titles, and socialize with parishioners. Indoor and outdoor activities are available for kids of all ages! Children 18 and under must be accompanied by a parent or caregiver at all times. Contact John Olson to learn more at jamolson@gmail.com.

st isidore garden

Three years ago, parishioners began cultivating the St. Isidore Garden—a peaceful space now producing organic food for the poor through St. Vincent de Paul.

More than just a garden, it's a place where children learn about creation, responsibility, and the joy of working with their hands. Weekly classes have helped root our young people in purpose and peace. All are welcome—young and old—to step outside, connect with nature, and encounter God. Volunteers gather Mondays at 10a to harvest, but you're always invited to walk the garden or enjoy a picnic nearby.

This garden is for everyone—come be nourished in body and spirit.

interested in learning more about catholicism?

Our Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) program is open to anyone interested in deepening their understanding of the Catholic faith—whether you're a lifelong Catholic seeking a refresher or someone who is simply curious about what Catholics believe.

Participation in the program does not require a commitment to become Catholic; it's a welcoming space to explore, ask questions, and grow in faith. To learn more or to join us, email ocia@princeofpeacetaylors.org. We'd love to walk with you on your journey!

journey to the holy land

Parishioners are invited to embark on a once-in-a-lifetime spiritual journey to the Holy Land from 3–12 January 2026, led by Sister Deirdre “Dede” Byrne, a religious sister, missionary, and retired U.S. Army surgeon, along with Fr. Richard Tomlinson as spiritual director. This 10-day pilgrimage will immerse travelers in the sacred geography of our faith, offering daily Mass, guided visits to holy sites, and time for prayer and reflection.

Pilgrims will visit Bethlehem, Nazareth, the Sea of Galilee, and Jerusalem—praying at the Church of the Nativity, renewing wedding vows at Cana, walking the Via Dolorosa, and celebrating Mass at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. The itinerary also includes Mount Tabor, the Mount of Beatitudes, the Jordan River, and even a chance to float in the Dead Sea. The pilgrimage will be offered in prayer for Sister Philip Marie Burle, and special intentions, including prayers for life, expectant mothers, and the faithful departed, will be incorporated throughout.

This thoughtfully planned journey includes round-trip airfare from Newark, hotel accommodations, most meals, entrance fees, ground transportation, and an English-speaking guide. It's designed to be spiritually enriching while also accommodating the practical needs of travelers. Participants should be prepared for moderate walking and moments of profound encounter with Scripture and tradition.

To register or learn more, visit www.The-Catholic-Journey.com/0126Epiphany or call 201.523.6148. Space is limited and early registration is recommended. This Epiphany season, consider deepening your faith by encountering Christ in the land where He was born, taught, suffered, died, and rose again.

july –most precious blood of jesus

The Church dedicates July to the Precious Blood of Jesus, inviting us to reflect on the price of our redemption and Christ's boundless love. Honor this devotion by praying the Litany of the Precious Blood, spending time in Eucharistic Adoration, attending Mass, and offering acts of reparation. This month, take time to meditate on Christ's Passion and give thanks for His Precious Blood poured out for our salvation.

celebrating the gift of grandparents

This year, we join the Church in celebrating the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly on Sunday, 28 July, near the Feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne, the beloved grandparents of Jesus.

We invite the grandparents of our parish to share a short reflection: How do you share your faith with your grandchildren?

Please send a brief quote (1–2 sentences) to communications@princeofpeacetaylors.org by Monday, 15 July.

thank you for a wonderful vbs

These are 8 of our 10 seniors who helped with VBS this year. These teenagers have been helping for YEARS and we are grateful for their dedication to our VBS. Our program is always better when the younger students have great teens to look up to. Parents, thank you for sharing your wonderful kids with us this summer. Parishioners, if you see these students around get to know them, they are incredible members of our community. From the bottom of my heart I'm grateful for our all our incredible volunteers.—Mrs. Maria Barontini job opening with family honor

Family Honor is moving to the Greenville area and seeking a part-time (10 hrs/week) Administrative/Bookkeeping Assistant. Must have 3+ years of experience with QuickBooks, DonorPerfect, and Excel, and be detail-oriented. Flexible hours. Ideal for someone who enjoys working in a faith-based, Catholic organization. To apply, email your resume to famhonor@aol.com or call 803-929-0858.

religious education forms

2025-26 Religious Education Forms are now available in the Parish Office or by emailing Maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org.

Please register early. Classes will begin 17 August, with a parent meeting in the PAC after dropping students off in their classrooms. One parent MUST attend the meeting per family.

If you chose to homeschool your child(ren) and are teaching religion at home, please fill out a Homeschool RE Registration Form and turn it into Maria Barontini. This serves as a record for sacramental preparation and is needed YEARLY. The parish needs records for two full years for First Holy Communion AND two years of records for Confirmation preparation. Please do not come to the parish office expecting your child to receive a sacrament immediately without proper records and attendance at mandatory sacramental events/meetings. The homeschool RE Registration Form outlines the requirements for each sacrament for our homeschooling families. ALL First Holy Communion YEAR 2 and Confirmation YEAR 2 registration forms must be turned in prior to the yearly December deadline for a child to participate in a spring sacrament.

Important Dates to add to your calendar now:

- 17 August: RE Session #1/Parent Meeting
- 4 September: Mandatory First Holy Communion Parent meeting 6p in Croghan Hall (FHC Paperwork will be available in August)
- 4 September: Mandatory Confirmation Parent meeting 7.30p in Croghan Hall (Confirmation Paperwork will be available in August)

Happenings & Needs

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

we're hiring—finance & accounting manager

Prince of Peace Catholic Church and School in Taylors, SC, is seeking a full-time, exempt Finance & Accounting Manager to handle the financial, accounting, and human resource operations for both parish and school. The individual in this role will work closely with the Director of Administration, Principal, and Pastor and must be highly organized, detail-oriented, and committed to confidentiality.

Parish Responsibilities include processing accounts payable and receivable, reconciling accounts, managing payroll through ADP, preparing monthly and quarterly financial reports, entering and tracking donations in Flocknote, and assisting with budget development and reporting. The Manager will attend staff meetings and quarterly meetings of the Parish Finance Council, helping prepare the annual parish financial report.

School Responsibilities include handling accounts payable, preparing checks, reconciling credit card and other accounts, and assisting in the budgeting process using Martus. The Manager will help ensure smooth transitions between accounting software systems, assist with reporting for Diocesan requirements, and attend quarterly Finance Subcommittee meetings of the School Advisory Council.

This role requires in-office work Monday through Friday (40 hours/week) and professional attire. Candidates must have a degree in finance or accounting and relevant payroll experience. Familiarity with Sylogist, Flocknote, and Martus is a plus. Practicing Catholics are strongly preferred due to the nature of the work with parishioner records and donor stewardship.
