PRINCE of PEACE
Catholic School

From Our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Parishioners,

Can you imagine if everyone in the world thought that Christianity was best and only represented by Westboro Baptist Church, the small community that has made a name for itself by protesting loudly that pretty much everyone except for them is going to hell? As Catholics, you would immediately see that to do so is ludicrous, as far removed as it could be from the fullness of truth given in Catholicism.

So why would you do the same thing for other groups?

Islam is not all ISIS or Boko Haram. Judaism is not all Lubavitchers or Lev Tahor. Buddhism is not all Bodu Bala Sena or Falun Gong. Hinduism is not all Aghori or Thugees. Separatist groups often rise in world religions as a response to a revivalist movement in reaction to perceived or real threats. We see the same thing in Catholicism, which is not all We Are Church or the Society of Saint Pius V. In fact, radical progressivists like the Women’s Ordination Conference and the sedevacantists who believe there has not been a real pope since Pius XII are Catholics in some exterior forms, but hardly in their heart of hearts.

I grew up in South Carolina with no exposure to Islam, and frankly, no interest either. When 9/11 happened, my entire knowledge about that religion was five minutes from World History class and the American media. And I was perfectly fine with that. It was not until I started meeting Christians who lived in the Middle East and were persecuted that I began to want to learn more. And I discovered that, like so many things, the story is so much more complex and rich than I ever had any idea. I discovered that there were places like the United Arab Emirates where Christians and Muslims and Sikhs and Hindus and Jains live side by side today in harmony under a government based on Islamic Shari’a. And that there are places like Rwanda where Hutus perpetuated a genocidal slaughter against millions of Tutsis, and that they were all Catholics, bound by the law of love of the Gospel. There are places like Armenia, Assyria, and Greece where Christians were brutally murdered by Turks and Arabs. And that Muslim Turks and Arabs were also brutally murdered by Armenians, Assyrians, and Greeks.

Those who do not learn history the past are doomed to repeat it, the thinker George Santayana is credited with saying, even though he actually said: Those who do not remember the past are condemned to repeat it. I would say: those who do not learn history and religion, both their own and that of others, are condemned to perpetuate error and will never see peace.

Vatican II, in Gaudium et spes §8, wrote: Differences crop up ... between races and between various kinds of social orders; between wealthy nations and those which are less influential or are needy; finally, between international institutions born of the popular desire for peace, and the ambition to propagate one’s own ideology, as well as collective greeds existing in nations or other groups. What results is mutual distrust, enmities, conflicts and hardships. Of such is man at once the cause and the victim.

Maybe we can stop being the cause of such conflicts. But we have to start with the Gospel, continue with the Gospel, and end with the Gospel: God is love.

In Christ,

For the benefit of families, Confessions will be heard from 11a-12p on the following upcoming dates: 6 February, 6 March, and 1 May.

over 900 books, socializing and fun await

The Blessed McGivney Hall is open on Sundays after the 10a Mass. Grab a hot drink or breakfast, peruse a library of over 900 vetted Catholic titles, and socialize with parishioners. Children 18 and under must be accompanied by a parent or caregiver at all times. Contact John Olson to learn more at jamolson@gmail.com.

monday morning workout for men

Join the men (18 and older) of the parish who “offer it up” and attack the week every Monday morning from 5.30-6.15a for outdoor exercise and prayer. No fitness background is necessary. Park in the lot between the PAC and McGivney Hall. Participants will offer up prayer and suffering for Fr. Smith, Fr. Tomlinson, all clergy, our own families, and the marriage and family life throughout the Parish. Questions? Contact Paul Pizzuti at pizzuti@fidei.email or 864.501.8954.

columbiettes meet & greet

Please join the Columbiettes at 7p on 11 February in McGivney Hall for a meet and greet with light refreshments, fellowship, and a chance to learn more about this organization.

Candlemas, also known as the Feast of Light, is a day of purification, renewal, and hope. Celebrated forty days after Christmas, it commemorates the Presentation of the Lord and Our Lady’s obedience to the Mosaic Law, as prescribed in Leviticus 12:2–8. A blessing of candles will take place during Latin Mass on Monday, 2 February at 7p.

Candles for the blessing should be placed on the table inside the communion rail before Mass. You may bring your own candles or purchase them through the parish office.

Parish candle purchase details:

- Price: Two 8” candles per box – $5
- How to order: Place payment in the collection basket and write “Candlemas candles” with your name on the envelope
- Distribution: On 2 February, purchased candles will be placed on the table inside the communion rail with your name on the box

40 days for life

Members of the Prince of Peace Respect Life Committee will be in the narthex after all Masses on 7-8 February and 14-15 February. Please stop by to learn more and sign up.

We invite all parishioners to prayerfully consider giving one hour to pray at the abortion facility on Grove Road on the following Mondays: 23 February; 2, 9, 16, and 23 March.

Bring a friend and pray together. Many who participate share that this hour of prayer becomes one of the greatest blessings of their week.

sponsors needed

We are seeking faithful parishioners who are willing to serve as sponsors for OCIA candidates and Confirmation students who do not have a practicing Catholic in their life to fill this role.

A sponsor must be a Catholic in good standing and is asked to walk alongside a candidate during this important season of faith formation. Sponsors offer encouragement, prayer, and personal witness—helping the candidate grow in their understanding of the Catholic faith and inspiring them to live it authentically in daily life. This is a meaningful relationship rooted in accompaniment, not expertise.

Not all volunteers will be matched with a candidate this year; however, we hope to build a running list of parishioners who are open to serving as sponsors as needs arise.

If you feel called to consider this role or would like to learn more, please email Maria Barontini at maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org to discuss further.

pop art party 2026

Mark your calendars for the 22nd Annual POP Art Gala on Saturday, 18 April 2026. This year's theme, When in Rome, promises an elegant and festive evening inspired by the beauty and culture of Rome—all in support of the extraordinary students of Prince of Peace Catholic School. More details coming soon!

best of the upstate

Nominations for Best of the Upstate begin 6 February with The Greenville News! Please nominate the parish and school as your “Best Place of Worship,” “Best Private School,” and “Best Preschool.”

join our blue ribbon school of academic excellence

Prince of Peace Catholic School (Kindergarten–8th Grade) provides a rigorous and well-rounded education that blends a classical approach to English and reading with a modern, research-based approach to science and math. Rooted in our Catholic faith, we form students in virtue, prayer, and academic excellence, partnering closely with parents to educate the whole child.

Did you know? Through the Education Scholarship Trust Fund (ESTF), more than 85% of students in South Carolina qualify for a $7,634 scholarship toward nonpublic school tuition—including Catholic schools like Prince of Peace.

Enrollment for the next academic year is underway. For more information, please contact our school office.

bulletin advertising

We extend our sincere thanks to our current bulletin advertisers whose generous support makes this important parish communication possible at no cost to our parish. Because of you, our bulletin is available both in print and online and continues to be a valuable way to stay connected as a church family.

Our bulletin publishing partner, Mark Fitzgerald from Diocesan, is currently working to renew existing advertisements and to welcome new bulletin advertisers. Mark will be reaching out to our current sponsors in the coming days—thank you in advance for your continued support through ad renewal.

If you are interested in advertising in the bulletin on behalf of your business, family, favorite charity, or in memory of a loved one, we invite you to contact Mark directly. Bulletin advertisers recognize the tremendous value of reaching our parish community, and we ask parishioners and guests to support these generous sponsors whenever possible. Mark will be on site at the parish Tuesday, 17 February through Thursday, 19 February and can be reached at 614.205.4841 or by email at mfitzgerald@diocesan.com.

pop women's group

All women of the parish are warmly invited to join the POP Women's Group meeting Wednesdays at 7p in Guadalupe Hall. Come gather with us each week for meaningful friendship, encouragement, and shared growth as we deepen our understanding of the Catholic faith together. Whether you are new or returning, you are most welcome. For more information, please contact Karen Cantu at 864.553.1918.

Sunday Vespers (Evening Prayer) is a simple, beautiful way to end the Lord's Day. This prayer of the Church includes psalms and Scripture and lasts about 30 minutes.

- Join us Sundays at 6p. during Ordinary Time, through 15 February.

Come as you are—listen, pray quietly, or participate fully. It's a peaceful way to rest in God's presence and prepare for the week ahead.

via fidelis

Via Fidelis Year 2 begins on Ash Wednesday, 18 February. Our 2026 theme, Understand the Faith, invites us to know and love our Catholic faith more deeply through the Catechism of the Catholic Church—a gift of the Second Vatican Council given to the Church by St. John Paul II. With the Bible and the Catechism together, we can learn doctrine, discern God's will, and open our hearts to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Best of all, the full Catechism is readily available online, making this rich treasury of our faith accessible to all.

job opening: elementary school teacher

Our parish school- recently honored as a National Blue Ribbon School and State of South Carolina Blue Ribbon School-forms saints and scholars through faith, virtue, and academic excellence. We are seeking a mission-driven Lower Elementary Teacher, preferably a practicing Catholic, with strong early literacy skills and a love for educating the whole child.

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume, and three references to Principal Barontini at principal@popcatholicsschool.org

recollections

Friends of St Josemaria will be hosting in-person recollections:

- Evening of recollection for men: Thursday, 19 February at 7p. Reception following.
- Morning recollection for women: Saturday, 21 February at 9a.

A recollection is a silent mini-retreat. It consists of Benediction, a meditation by a priest of the Prelature Opus Dei, an examination of conscience, spiritual reading and a talk on a practical topic. Contact Thierry at thierry.wersinger@gmail.com or 864.313.5601

school mass notice

We have a weekly School Mass which is the heart of our week. That Mass is no longer open to anyone outside of the school community, which means: parents, grandparents, family members, POPCS students, faculty and staff. The church during school liturgical functions will be closed and locked for the security of our families. Any of those who are admitted should check in at the school first and get the Raptor system clearance before proceeding to the church.
