From Our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

I stopped celebrating my birthday when I could no longer count that high. I turn 49 today, and it still seems weird to me that I am literally half a century old. I am no longer a young priest, and I now have shoes that are older than some of our young priests, which is either a testament to being a hoarder and not knowing it or economy in at least one part of my life. I am not as young as I used to be, and I am beginning to feel it.

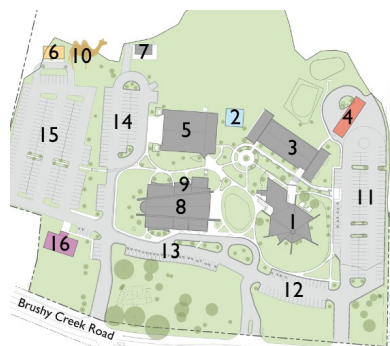

But there is something beautiful about growing old with you as my spiritual family. I am now celebrating the weddings of children I gave First Communion to our baptized. I have also had to celebrate the funerals of young people that I baptized or gave First Communion to, and that is quite poignant indeed.

My mother used to tell me, “We shouldn’t celebrate the day that a person comes into this old world, but when they leave it.” So I have never been a fan of birthday celebrations, but I also have not been disconsolate at death either, because, as the preface for the Funeral Mass tells us, for your faithful people, Lord, life is changed, not ended. I have always appreciated the fact that my parents always impressed upon me the lesson that this life is not all there is, and only “counts” inasmuch as it is where we do the Lord’s will to go on to the next life. Life is beautiful, even in this world, and is a gift, and we should definitely have a zest for life. But let us never forget when crosses comes or consolation goes, this world is not all there is. While I do not believe in instant canonisations of everyone who dies (if y’all don’t pray me out of purgatory after being with you for so long, I will haunt you!), and would never say, I just know that person is in heaven (because only God can say that, and neither you or I are God), I do very much believe in the power of the Mercy of God, even and especially at and in our last moments.

I have no idea if I will celebrate my 50th birthday or my 100th birthday with you or on this earth at all. But either way, let’s celebrate life in this world and prepare for the next by doing whatever we can by God’s grace to set the world on fire for love.

Fr. Christopher L. Smith

young adult study

Living a truly Catholic life is the greatest adventure and the most fulfilling vocation any of us can embrace, regardless of the state in life to which God has called us. We are called to know, love, and serve God in this life, but amid the noise and competing claims of our modern world, it can be challenging to understand clearly both what the Church teaches and why it matters.

Young adults (ages 18–30)—whether working, recently graduated from high school, or beginning college—are invited to join a weekly study rooted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Using Ascension Press’s Foundations of Faith study, we will engage in guided discussions, explore what the Church’s teachings mean for our daily lives, and grow deeper in our faith together.

Invite your curious friends, find answers to questions about the Church that you have always wanted to ask, and strive together to become who Christ calls us to be through the transforming gift of faith.

This 20-week study will be facilitated by Michael Sandifer and will meet on Mondays from 6–8p, beginning 13 July, in Bl. McGivney Hall at Prince of Peace. Materials cost $38 (scholarships available).

To pre-register or for more information, contact Michael.Sandifer@princeofpeacetaylors.org.

feast of the assumption

The feast of the Assumption is Saturday, 15 August. It commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven before her body could begin to decay—a foretaste of our own bodily resurrection at the end of time. Because it signifies the Blessed Virgin’s passing into eternal life, it is the most important of all Marian feasts.

Mass times are as follows:

- 8a Latin
- 10a English

st isidore garden

The Garden was established three years ago by parishioners of Prince of Peace as a place of beauty, stewardship, and service. Throughout the growing season, volunteers cultivate organic fruits, vegetables, and herbs that are shared with those in need through the St. Vincent de Paul Society, extending the blessings of the harvest to our local community.

The Garden also serves as an outdoor classroom where children can learn to appreciate God’s creation and develop a spirit of generosity and responsibility. Through a variety of garden programs and hands-on activities, young parishioners discover how tending the earth can bring both beauty and abundance while fostering a deeper respect for the natural world.

For children and adults alike, the Garden offers an opportunity to step away from the busyness of daily life, reconnect with creation, and encounter the presence of God in a peaceful setting. It is a place for reflection, fellowship, and gratitude for the gifts God provides.

If you have not yet visited the Garden, summer is a wonderful time to do so. Every Monday from 9.30–11a, parishioners gather to harvest produce, and visitors are always welcome to stroll through the pathways, see what is growing, and enjoy the tranquility of the space. You may even wish to bring a picnic and relax at one of the picnic tables.

peace in progress campaign

Thanks to the generosity of our parish family, the Peace in Progress Campaign has now reached $1.778 million in pledges (74.1% of goal) and $994,500 in cash received (82.9% of the cash goal), with 30.4% of parish households participating.

We are now just $205,500 away from the $1.2 million cash threshold needed to begin construction and $622,100 away from fully funding the project. Thank you for your prayerful support and commitment to strengthening Prince of Peace for generations to come.

POPCS welcomes Salva Dut on 15 october

Prince of Peace Catholic School is honored to welcome Salva Dut, founder of Water for South Sudan. Salva's remarkable journey inspired the bestselling novel A Long Walk to Water.

For the past three years, our students have participated in the Iron Giraffe Challenge to help provide clean water for communities in South Sudan. As part of this effort, 7th-grade students read A Long Walk to Water and lead the school's fundraising initiative, bringing the story's message of compassion and service to life in a meaningful way.

This honor is especially significant because Salva makes just one trip to the United States each year to visit the school selected through the Iron Giraffe Challenge. We are grateful for this unique opportunity and look forward to welcoming Salva Dut to Prince of Peace on 15 October.
