From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

The word Eucharist in Greek literally means thanksgiving, so as Catholics we celebrate Thanksgiving every day. Most of us learned about the first Thanksgiving as a moment of thanks to God first done by the Puritans in 1621 by a meal shared with the Wampanoag native people. In 1863, Abraham Lincoln declared it a national holiday, and in 1941 Congress fixed its date as the fourth Thursday of November. But was that encounter on Plymouth Rock the first Thanksgiving?

On 8 September 1565, in Saint Augustine, Florida, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin, Father Francisco López de Mendoza Grajales celebrated a Votive Mass of Thanksgiving, which was followed by a shared meal between the Spanish and the Timucua tribe. Of course, Florida did not become a part of America until 1819, by which time the Puritan story had already shaped the national consciousness.

Many parishes have a special Mass on Thanksgiving Day, and so it is a nice way to blend both traditions. Even though it is not a Holy Day of Obligation, churches are often packed as people quite naturally think it is perfectly appropriate to celebrate The Thanksgiving of the Church on our national day to give thanks.

When you come to Mass this Thursday, don't forget the Big Brown Box of Love in the narthex. The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul provides direct assistance to those in need, first of all to our own parishioners, and second to the wider community. The bulletin often lists what they are in need of (and also what they do not need: it is not a junk shop), so try to obtain those items as you do your Thanksgiving shopping and bring them to church with you. And if you or your family are struggling right now, don't hesitate to reach out to SVDP! That's what we're here for!

Oh, and remember: Christmas does not begin until 24 December. Ahem..... IYKYK.

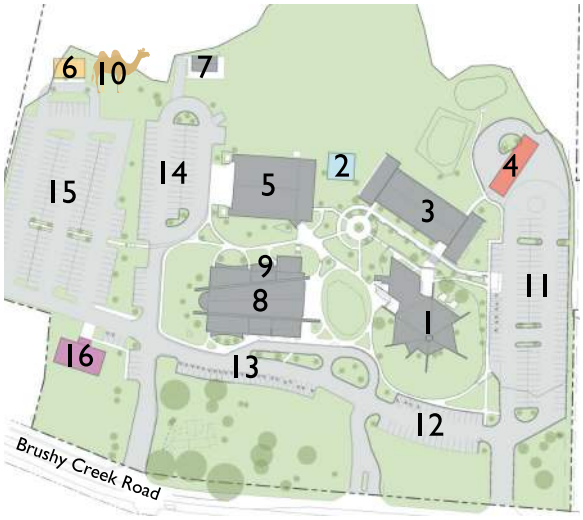

Sincerely yours,

Your Favourite Advent Grinch

On the Cover: Christ Pantocrator ("Ruler of All"), a nearly 900-year-old mosaic in the Cathedral of Cefalù, Sicily. Jesus raises His right hand in blessing and holds the Gospels in His left. The gold background represents the glory of heaven. On this Solemnity of Christ the King, the image reminds us that Jesus reigns over all creation.
